THE LIBERAL LEADER

The editor of the Ottawa Citizen, who travelled with the Mackenzie King party on the recent western tour, reported Mr. King for the Vancouver Province when in Vancouver and here is one of the paragraphs of the re-

"Mr. King struck a popular note when he declared that, if elected, he will abolish relief camps. He said he would put men in these camps at work on social service employment at pay, remembering there would be a difference in wages for men on emergency work and those engaged in industry. He added that the forces that had been marshalled to meet war contingencies could also be applied in dealing with unemployment."

THE MINING SITUATION

Dealing then with the mining situation the Liberal leader said:

"What mining requires is a national policy known to all was fined $50, with option of seven who has been in hospital in Vanthe world.
