FAIR BOARD REORGANIZATION

People of the city will undoubtedly support to the full the new board of the Prince Rupert Agricultural and Industrial Association. It is composed of young men, full of energy and with a set purpose to make the fall fair this year a success. They have a big job ahead of them, especially in view of the fact that the building is badly in need of repair and that there is a debt still hanging over the association. There will have to be a lot of teamwork to bring back a prosperous organization.

THIRTY REFUSE NOMINATION

Word is received from Ottawa that thirty Conservative members of the present Parliament are refusing nomination for the election which it is expected will be held in September. It is also said that a good many are trying to get more permanent positions in the Senate, sixteen places there being at present vacant.

The new list of voters will not be printed until the end of August or early in September, so there is little probability of an election being held before September although the House will be dissolved before that date.

STEVENS IN PICTURE

Hon. H. H. Stevens is confidently expected to be somewhere in the picture if Mr. Bennett retires before the election. It is understood that the Prime Minister would have been out of politics ere this only that the party cannot get together on a new leader, one faction asking for Stevens and others wanting some other man. Mr. Rhodes' health is not good enough to permit him to accept the position and there seems to be no other outstanding man. Unless Mr. Stevens is called upon it seems as if disintegration will have destroyed the party even before the election. And if Mr. Stevens is chosen, the party will lose many of its former strong supporters.

While Liberals may not be a unit in regard to policy they are a unit in opposition to the present administration and most of them are willing that their differences shall be fought out among themselves after the election is over. In that they have the advantage over their opponents.

Antonelli's Homer Brings in Lone Run for Legion Against Sons Of Canada Sunday

LEAGUE STANDING

Sons of Canada	5	1	.833
Legion	2	2	.500
Elks	0	4	.000

With a large crowd present the Sons of Canada defeated the Legion in Sunday's baseball fixture. Behind Lindsay's pitching the Sons played airtight ball and in the first three innings collected six runs while the Vets failed to score. In the fourth and fifth neither team scored but in the sixth "Ham" Antonelli made a circuit clout. The Canucks scored two more runs in this innings when Johnson and Simonson crossed the plate. In the seventh the Legion failed to score after filling the bags. For the Sons Lindsay and Simonson played a good game and Smith and Antonelli were good for the Legion.

"Ham" Antonelli scored Legion's only run with a homer.

SPORT CHAT

Clem McCarthy says there is no sure system of beating the bookies at a horse race. There never was one and never will be. Betting men often have a run of luck which makes them think they have discovered a system but it inevitably fails. As Ty Cobb could steal bases when other men were easy outs, so some men can bet and win when others bet and lose. It may be intuition or it may be skill or it may be just luck.

For 22 years George Hildebrand trop the American League baseball battlefields, calling 'em as he saw em—an umpire. He never was injured—not a single foul ball struck him where he wasn't protected. Last winter he fell off a chair in his home here, sprained his ankle and ended his ball career.

Coron is a race horse without a tail. He is a two-year old, by the Derby winner Coronach, and he is owned by Lady Brooke. According to racing experts, the tail helps to keep the horse balanced around the bends of the track, but Coron gets along fine as he is. He moves smoothly in his gallops.

One of Winnipeg's best chess players, C. R. T. DeWet, went to the Minneapolis-Manitoba tournament with high hopes. In the first round his opponent was John Morrell of Minneapolis, who was not only deaf but blind. The Manitoban was defeated in 65 moves.

Playing cards as they are used today are said to date back 500 years. The place of their invention is given as France, half a century before the discovery of America. Their ultimate origin is thought to be the east and their introduction into Europe is supposed to have followed the caravan routes.

It is a fact, perhaps significant, that Dave Komonen, great Finnish distance runner of Sudbury Ont., has scarcely won a major race since his failure last year to win a place on the Canadian British Empire Games team. Komonen has lost virtually all the laurels he gathered in 1933 and 1934.

Booth Captures Football Game On Saturday

Booth School defeated King Edward High School by one goal to nil on Saturday afternoon in a Junior Football League fixture.

Man in the Moon

Watch out or somebody'll strike.

I shall strike if I have to do without so many of the good things of life much longer.

Everybody is reading about the Weyerhauser ransom but what everybody wishes is that he could get his hands on a few Weyerhauser notes or good Canadian currency would do just as well.

Jake says he's glad the Junior Chamber has got hold of the Fair Board. Now the question will be: "What will they do with it?" Everybody's watching and a good many will be willing to help.

What was wrong with the news at the week-end. You will perhaps notice there was no word of the Dionne quints or their father or mother or doctor. What would the world have to talk about if it were not for these wonders.

During the last election campaign Mr. Bennett said he would solve the unemployment problem or perish in the attempt. Now Mr. Bennett is on the verge of a political abyss and is liable to perish politically unless a miracle happens to save him.
