LATE J. C. McLENNAN

This afternoon the mortal remains of the late J. C. McLennan are being laid to rest under Masonic auspices. It reminds us that another of Prince Rupert's pioneers has passed away.

Mr. McLennan was a quiet, unassuming man who did his work quietly and without display. He was looked upon as one of the "solid" members of the community. He served in many public positions with credit to himself and benefit to the city. While in later years he lived practically in retirement, he always took a very keen interest in all that concerned the nation, the province or the city. He had reached the alloted span of years and will be remembered as an outstanding personality.

PREPARED TO DO PART

The British government, through the under secretary for the Dominions, stated in the British House of Commons recently that it was prepared to do its part in regard to encouraging emigration to Canada as soon as conditions were favorable but that it was a matter primarily for the Canadian government. In other words, the Canadian government must take the lead.

The under secretary stated that during the past ten years ony 353,855 migrants had come to Canada from the United Kingdom and during that period half a million had come from other countries and about 200,000 from the United States.

The matter was brought up by members who were behind the Hornby movement for settlement of families on the land in Canada.

In view of the pressure from Asiatic nations on this coast, we think it time something was done to fill some of our vacant areas with good white settlers.

CELEBRATE JUBILEE

We are glad to see that steps have been taken looking to a proper celebration of the King's Jubilee. A strong committee has been appointed and, doubtless, the occasion will be an outstanding one. In view of the democratic tendencies of the present Royal Family we feel that every Canadian, whether native born or otherwise, should take part in this celebration without reservations. The king is the symbol of good government and a continuation of such government is much to be desired.

FELIX REDA NEAR CINCH

Looks Like He Will Cop Ten-Pin Bowling Championship

Felix Reda has practically cinched the individual ten-pin bowling championship with a total score of 1015 which it is hardly considered will be topped in the remaining few games to be played.

Results so far have been as follows: Felix Reda, 1015; E. Stavey, 989; Nels Gunderson, 704; M. E. Young, 953; Roy Morrison, 953; Eddie Smith, 949; Percy McIntosh, 941; George Ciccone 923; F. Morrison, 923; J. W. Moran, 916; A. O. Franks, 914; F. Comadina, 904; Fred Wesch, 816; Grant Coverdale, 815; G. White, 750.

Heard at the Alley

(Tune of "Isle of Sapri")

It was down at the Rex Bowling Alleys
Where I first made a strike and a spare,
For I picked up a split there one evening
That made some of the boys take the air.

Dillinger now has surrendered
And Felix don't care any more,
For Stacey has grooved out the alleys,
Making 276 for high score.

Jack Keefe has a wonderful special,
He gave Ciccone a pretty close shave,
While Scoop has gone out picking cherries
And Bill Schriaberg came in with a spare.

Bill has returned from Vancouver,
And he said he had a wonderful trip,
While bowling last night in the alley,
He picked up a three-legged split.

Now, here's to the Rex Bowling Alley,
And the boys and the girls who have played,
To "Hot Shot," himself, keeping jolly,
And the pulp mill that's now on the way.

—JACK MORAN.

Prince Rupert And Smithers Billiard Champs to Meet

A billiard match is being arranged between the Smithers local champion, R. C. Mutch, and Neil Cameron, Prince Rupert city champion, for a total of 1500 points, the games to be played, if negotiations for the match are successfully concluded, in two blocks of 750 here. The understanding is that Cameron will go to Smithers to play a return match at a date to be arranged.

The challenge came through N P. Moran of the Empress Pool Room of Smithers.

Whist Party By Labor League

Seven Tables at Affair Last Thursday Night in Rooms at Exchange Block

An enjoyable whist party was held by the Women's Labor League last Thursday night in the rooms in the Exchange Block. There were seven tables of cards and the prize-winners were: ladies' first, Mrs. P. Whyte; second, Mrs. J. Field; men's first, J. Johnson; second, Duncan Matheson.

After cards, refreshments were served.

Mrs. A. Gomez and Mrs. P. Whyte comprised the committee in charge.

Disputed Fall

These clips taken from the news reel of Hearst Metrotone News, tell the story of the fall of Jockey Gerry Wilson, from the back of the Grand National favorite, Golden Miller, during the running of the historic steeplechase classic at Aintree on March 29. Backed as perhaps no other horse has even been backed in that race, Golden Miller carried the hopes of many thousands of race fans, who would have collected some $10,000,000 from the bookmakers if the horse had won. Studying the pictures from top to bottom, we see the various stages of Jockey Wilson's tumble, from the moment that the horse took the hurdle, in what seemed to be a perfect jump, and a "four point" landing. The second picture shows Wilson falling backward, and to the side, from his saddle, to sprawl on the ground (third), and then to creep on hands and knees, off the the course. Golden Miller, riderless (extreme right), continued running with the field.

RHAPSODY IN RHUBARB

Canadian forced rhubarb which is now available on the market may be used in various ways in the household. For the purpose of cooking and canning, the fresh young stalks, particularly the first cutting, have better flavor and color, and are more tender and juicy than the older ones. As the rhubarb grows older, the stems become more acid and may be used principally for juice. Each stalk should be washed carefully and the ends trimmed but the skin should not be removed. It gives the beautiful color to the cooked rhubarb and helps to hold the shape of each piece.

The easiest way to prepare rhubarb is in sauce. Some food experts think that the best way to make the sauce is to make a thick syrup of sugar first and then drop the rhubarb pieces, each about half-an-inch long, into it and cook until tender. This takes only a few minutes, and is in place of the usual method of mixing two parts of the fruit and one part sugar together and cooking them until the liquor oozes out and forms a syrup. Some people declare that one of the finest combinations ever tasted by man is rhubarb and strawberries cooked together while all admit that the juice from the old rhubarb stocks make a delicious cooling drink in the summer time. Also, the tart juice combined with sugar and the stiffly-beaten white of an egg makes an enticing creamy sauce. Rhubarb, as is well known, gives the distinctive touch to tapioca puddings, tarts, sherbets, gelatine and shortcakes.

Baked rhubarb can be made while the oven is cooking some other food. The rhubarb looks especially attractive if a glass baking dish is used. The method of procedure is: Butter a covered baking dish; spread a layer of rhubarb over the bottom; sprinkle a layer of sugar; then add another layer of rhubarb, and so on until the dish is filled. Sprinkle sugar over the top; then add small pieces of butter and the grated rind of a lemon. Some people prefer cinnamon or nutmeg flavor to the lemon. Cover the dish and bake slowly until the fruit is tender. Long, slow baking gives rhubarb a rich, red color. For variety, rhubarb and bananas can be baked together.

OCEAN FALLS IS GOOD

keep all the machines going during the rest of the week Those working Sunday get Monday or some other day off for rest and recreation.

Just now the lake from which the water for the mill is drawn is very low and, if the dry weather had continued, there would soon have been a shortage. Happily the rain came and there is now no danger of a shutdown on that account. Part of the power used at the plant is hydro-electric and part is generated from oil supplied by the Imperial Oil Company, tankers delivering the oil directly to the plant.

The newsprint manufactured at the plant is sent to different parts of the world. In addition to this commodity, a certain amount of pulp is exported and craft paper, tissues and other pulp products are manufactured.

Veterans Organize

A recently formed organization at Ocean Falls is a branch of the Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League. The officers are:

President, Bert T. Phillips.
Vice-President, Dr. Gilchrist.
Second vice-president, Murray Rhodes.
Secretary, William B. Day.
Treasurer, E. Barclay.
Sergeant-at-Arms, T. Main.
Executive—Messrs. Griffiths, H. Lewis and T. Balmer.

A fine hospital is sustained by dues from all the employees of the company and from a government grant. In addition there is a little emergency fund to which members pay only 10c a month and which has loaned to members for emergency cases over a thousand dollars so far. It has proved very useful. It is handled by a committee of which W. Silversides is secretary and Bert Phillips is chairman.

Swimming Pool

One of the interesting and useful institutions at Ocean Falls is the swimming pool which was built by the company at a cost of over $40,000. It is 60 feet long and 25 wide, is lined throughout with white tile. The water varies in depth from three to eight feet and in addition there is a small wading pool for little children. The swimming club has a membership of about 400 and is managed by a board of eight members with George Reid as chairman. Gordon McLean is supervisor and instructor. Men members pay $4 each half year as fees; ladies, $3.00, and children, $1.50. In addition there is a family rate. Transients are charged 25 cents each. Occasionally the club puts on a swimming gala.

The gymnasium is entirely separate from the swimming pool. It is located in one of the old buildings. It has permanent boxing and wrestling rings, one of which can be moved to the theatre for special boxing or wrestling exhibitions. The gym has 66 members, each paying a dollar a year. S. Dolan, better known to many as "Irish Pat," is in charge. He is the northwest champion welterweight wrestler and is an all round athlete. J. H. Haslett is the secretary-treasurer of the club. This is the club that wants to show its stuff to the Prince Rupert boys and a visit may be expected soon if they are given any encouragement.

Outside of the sports organizations the Liberal Association takes part in sport by providing a baseball team for the three-team league that is being formed. It also puts on whist drives and dances, the next drive being scheduled for April 23. The president of this organization is J. O. Latham, vice-president, D. Carnes and secretary, Bert Phillips.

It is impossible in a short article to tell of all the activities of Ocean Falls but suffice it to say that every person there can find himself a hobby if he so wishes. Gardening is rather restricted owing to the amount of ground available but window boxes are general and each house has a plot of grass and a small flower bed.
