Drive and Dance

Enjoyable Affair Held Friday In Metropole Hall With About One Hundred Persons Present

An enjoyable whist drive and dance was held by the Nordkap Lodge Friday night in the Metropole Hall.

There were twelve tables of whist and prize-winners were: ladies' first, Miss Lillian Ytreberg; second, Mrs. Michaelson; men's first, J. Field; second, Nels Gunderson.

In a raffle winners were Mrs. Harry Hanson, John Smith and Miss Marion Erickson.

After cards, delicious refreshments were served and dancing followed with music by Julius Welle's Orchestra. About one hundred were present at the dance.

Nels Gunderson was master of ceremonies and the committee in charge consisted of Mrs. A. Anderson, Mrs. Neis Luth, Mrs. P. Anderson, Mrs. B. Bendicksen, O. Kildahl, R. Jensen and A. Lindseth.
