THE COSY CORNER

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

LACE AND MESSALINE

A charming summer evening gown of Nile green satin messaline, simply, but beautifully put together with a white lace tunic, attractively shaped, as shown above. Like the satin skirt, the bodice is plain, but enriched with a fichu-like arrangement of lace matching that used for tunic.
Short sleeves end with a frill of lace and a high satin girdle marks the waist line.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Candles will last much longer if they are kept on ice twenty-four hours before using.

For toast to serve with poached eggs, cut out the centres of slices of bread with a round biscuit cutter. Toast these rounds either over the coals or in the oven after buttering them.

New shoes should be allowed to stand over right in a pan into which just enough olive oil to cover the soles has been poured.
They will last much longer and will never squeak.

To take axle grease out of goods, rub the spot with lard.
Rub the goods, rub the spot with lard. Rub the goods in the hand as if washing, let stay in three hours, then wash out in cold water, using plenty of soap.

When making lemonade, one of the lemons may be peeled and run through a meat chopper with a small piece of the peel. This will give the lemonade a delightfully piquant flavor.

In making a shoe bag or laundry bag that is to hang flat against the door, use brass rings instead of loops for slipping over the nails.
They will not pull out as the loops may.

When preparing fish for broiling, split it open down the back. After washing and drying well on a cloth, rub the fish well with oil and flour. This prevents it sticking to the broiler.

VANCOUVER BRITISH COLUMBIA

FOR SMOKERS ONLY

The German Emperor smokes cigars and cigarettes out of doors, but when in the privacy of his study he puffs at a small wooden pipe of the type favored by the average smoker, and costing about 60 cents.

The King of Spain keeps strictly to the cigarette. This is rolled in paper ungunned and requires very careful smoking to keep whole.

Alfonso's cigarette is about as peculiar as the cigar which the Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria used to smoke. The latter was fitted with a straw tube, and had to be held in a candle flame for a minute or two before it could be made to draw.

The Czar of Russia and King George favor the pipe when in private, but their smoking implements are of little value. A small pipe of the "bulldog" type is affected by both of them, and the tobacco they consume is of the common, inexpensive kind.

Thomas Alva Edison probably holds the record for the number of cigars smoked daily by one man, for he had confessed that, while 10 cigars are his normal allowance, he consumes double that number when deeply absorbed in work.

King Edward liked cigars, cigarets and a pipe. In his young days, his Majesty smoked cigars and nothing else. Once when the King was miles out on the Yankee prairie, during his American and Canadian travels, he produced a cigar, and his companions followed his example. "A match, please," said his Royal Highness.

A match! There was but one match between the whole party.
The position was tragic, for the wind was tearing over the prairie.

In order to decide who should attempt to keep the solitary match alight in the wind lots were drawn with blades of grass. The dire responsibility fell upon the King.
He lay on the ground, and his companions gathered round him with outstretched coats as shelter.

The match was lighted, so were all the cigars. Never before or since has the King felt so nervous as when he struck that match in the vast American prairie miles away from any town or village.

A few months ago The News solemnly read Mr. Monk, the Conservative leader in Quebec, out of the party because he persisted in consorting with Bourassa.
Now in the hope that they may shake Laurier's strength in Quebec The News is eager to get all the help that Monk, Bourassa, and the whole anti-British crew behind them can give.—Toronto Globe.
