MARKET IS UNCHANGED

Local Retail Prices Steady With No New Lines Coming in at This Time of Year

Little change is to be noted in the March revision of the list of local retail prices. Few, if any, new lines are in at this between-season time. Prices in practically all lines are steady. Eggs and meat are slightly lower while flour has an upward tendency in the wholesale market.

WHIFFLETS
From the Waterfront

A party of fifteen local members of the Masonic craft, led by W. D. Vance, district deputy grand master, will sail tonight on the Princess Adelaide on a special excursion to Ocean Falls to pay a fraternal visit to members of the order there. The party will return home Sunday noon aboard the steamer Princess Norah which will make a special call at the paper town to pick them up.

C. P. R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. S. K. Gray, arrived in port at 2:15 this afternoon from the south and will sail at 10 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

C. N. R. steamer Prince George, which was withdrawn from service last evening following her return from Anyox and Stewart, moved up this morning to the dry dock where work on annual overhaul of the vessel will commence immediately.

URGES USE OF MIRRORS

Rev. W. D. Grant Hollingworth Brings Lenten Message to Men Of Rotary Club

Bringing to the Rotary Club at the regular weekly luncheon yesterday in the Commodore Cafe a Lenten message, Rev. W. D. Grant Hollingworth urged the members to hold up various mirrors to themselves as a means of guaging their own conduct in life. There was an ancient superstition that to break a mirror brought seven years of bad luck but he assured them that to break some of these mirrors of life meant seven years' penal servitude.

The speaker spoke of the false estimates of themselves often formed by people. The mirror of humility and a sense of humor were often helpful to these. They had the power to see themselves as others saw them if they were only willing to use the proper mirror. People with the Gulliver complex, seeing others as little people and themselves as big, would particularly benefit from holding up before themselves the mirror of humility and a sense of humor. A sense of humor was one of the greatest things in life.

Mr. Hollingworth also said that a wife was often a useful mirror although a somewhat uncertain one. It was a reflector that often kept a person in the path of sanity. Sometimes, however, she was a freak mirror increasing or decreasing the size of the gazer.

Another mirror was a study of the great souls of history. Jesus Christ was the perfect measure of the stature of men.

C. V. Evitt, who presided, thanked the speaker on behalf of the members for his splendid message.

GEMS FROM LIFE'S SCRAP-BOOK

SPRINGTIME

The holy spirit of the spring is working silently.—George Macdonald.

It is love which paints the petal with myriad hues, glances in the warm sunbeam, arches the cloud with the bow of beauty, blazons the night with starry gems, and covers earth with loveliness.—Mary Baker Eddy.

Those who bring sunshine into the lives of others cannot keep it from their own.—J. M. Barrie.

He who sows courtesy, reaps friendship and he who plants kindness, gathers love.—Richard Brooks.

I can but trust that good shall fall at last—far off—at last, for all, and every winter change to spring.—Tennyson.
