NATIVES INDIGNANT

Government seems to overlook the for obtaining his native food.

A meeting was held by the Massett Indians to discuss and consider what steps they might take regardng the stand taken by the government in preventing the Indians from obtaining fish for food. If it wasn't for the strong Christian native leaders, who opened the meeting with prayer, it is doubted if violence could have been avoided. IVAN ADAMS.

FROM A STAFF OF SEVEN TO SIX THOUSAND STRONG

From less than a corporal's guard to the equivalent of six regiments - this graphically illustrates the growth of the Bank of Montreal's staff in 117 years.

On the 23rd of August, 1817, the first four employees of the Bank of Montreal were appointed. They were the cashier, an accountrant, a paying teller and a second teller. Shortly afterward a discount clerk, a second bookkeeper and a porter were opened its doors on Monday, November 3rd - an establishment which was destined to play a conspicuous and beneficial part in the development of Canada's resources.

These seven constituted the original staff when the modest establishment on St. Paul Street in Montreal extending from sea to sea - and overseas.

Throughout the many decades that have followed, the Bank of Montreal has made increasing effort to provide a hanking service always adequate to meet the requirements of Canada's development.

The original staff of seven has grown to 6,300, loyally serving the public through 500 branches
