IS DEAD

George McIntosh Sutherland of pert's best known and most highly respected pioneer citizens, passed away last night at 11:30 in the Prince Rupert Geenral Hospital where he had been a patient for a few hours. For the past year or so, Mr. Sutherland had been in failing health. On Sunday night he took a bad turn and was unconscious a good portion of yesterday, it being finally deemed advisable to remove nim to the hospital.

Born at Lybster, Caithnessshire, Scotland, seventy-two years ago. he late Mr. Sutherland came to Prince Rupert in 1909 at the time of the original sale of townsite lots and had made his residence here since. For a while before coming here, he lived in Montreal and Win-! nipeg. He took a keen interest in civic affairs for many years. He was a member of the Musonic craft—of St. Vincent's Lodge in Glasgow and Tsimpsean Lodge here.

Surviving relatives of deceased include a sister, Mrs. Jean Henderson of Stirlingshire, Scotland, and nephew, John Sutherland of Edinburgh.

The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon from Haynor Bros.' chapel.

At another meeting in the district, the same speaker told of the facilities offered at Prince Rupert where there were already dry docks, piers and adequate harbor for deep sea shipping, open all the year round and all on the direct and shortest route to the Orient, which has an ever expanding market.

For twenty years, Mr. Rideout said, they had been asking for a outlet but so far without success. He claimed that Premier King had been prepared to proceed with the plan when he was defeated at the last election. He looked to the next government to be Liberal.
