District headquarters of the provincial police were still without further information of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Simpson who have not been reported since they left Telegraph Creek on October 27 in an outboard motorboat for Juneau via Wrangell. Real anxiety is felt for the couple as conditions for navigation on the Stikine have been very unfavorable owing to slush and ice and, further, they had only three days' food with them. Provincial Constable J. V. Boys of Telegraph Creek is now conducting a search and it is possible that he may not be heard from for some days.
