 Mussolini Heard

Stand Approved

Relentless Stand Against Compromise Approved—Troops To Stay in Libya

ROME, Nov. 19.—Declaring "implacable resistance" to the imposition of sanctions, angry crowds of millions of Italians paraded the streets of this ancient city and other centres yesterday carrying banners with such legends as "Down With Sanctions, Long Live Italy." Widespread resentment was expressed in all quarters as the League of Nations penalties became effective.
 Embassies of the various sanction-approving nations were under unusually heavy guard to protect them against demonstrations of Italian patriots.
 In Rome and Milan large crowds staged friendly demonstrations before the legations of United States, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Argentine and other nations which have not joined in the sanctions.
 All British newspapers and magazines were ordered removed from newsstands.
 Mussolini Speaks
 In a fighting speech, Premier Benito Mussolini said: "Sanctions will never make the Italian people submit. They will only make the people rally around me the more.
 I am unable to see any justice in the sanctions."
 Today Fascism's highest authority, the Grand Council, approved Premier Mussolini's program of Ethiopian conquest and resistance to the League of Nations sanctions, taking a relentless stand against compromise.
 No public statement was issued except that the Grand Council had listened to Il Duce's statement.
 Mussolini discussed the Mediterwould be no further troop reduc-

UNCLE SAM WORKED UP

President F. D. Roosevelt in Storm Centre Following Announcement of Trade Pact
 Terms

WASHINGTON, D.C., Nov. 19.— Evidently from every state in the Union, a storm of protest broke over the head of President Franklin D. Roosevelt yesterday following announcement of the terms of the American-Canadian reciprocity pact. Business, agricultural and industrial leaders were prominent in the protest which was both from the commercial and the political standpoints. Agricultural and timber industries seem to be particularly fearful of the effects.
 The president of the Chicago Federation of Labor said that tariff adjustments were required but it was important that products of cheap labor in other countries should be kept out of competition with American-made goods.
 From the Pacific Northwest came threats that half of the lumber mills in Oregon and Washington would probably have to close down if the proposed reduction in lumber duties went into effect.
 Liquor manufacturers also protested at the reduction in duties on whiskey.
