Farewell Party For Miss Sherwood Held at Terrace

A farewell party was held on Monday night of this week at the Orange Hall in Terrace in honor of Miss Barbara Sherwood, well known in Prince Rupert, prior to her departure for England to join the Southampton Hospital as a student nurse. Numerous friends of the popular young lady assembled to do her honor and a pleasing gift was made.

Miss Sherwood leaves Terrace on tonight's train for Halifax where she will embark January 5 on the steamer Andania for England.

Christmas Day Radio Service

Exhorting his listeners to spread gifts of sympathy, loving service and friendship not only at Christmas but throughout the year, Rev. W. D. Grant Hollingworth, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, conducted a special Yuletide service over the local radio station on Christmas afternoon. Mr. Hollingworth gave a brief history of some of the Christmas customs such as the tree and the presentation of gifts and suggested the application of these customs in a spiritual and permanent way. "Make the method of your life as that of a friend of Jesus Christ, he urged.

Mr. Hollingworth recited a number of poems with musical accompaniment by Mrs. E. J. Smith, director of music at First Presbyterian Church. Miss Betty Wood sang as a vocal solo "Immanuel" and J. A. Teng sang "On Bethlehem's Plain."

WHIFFLETS

From the Waterfront

With a light list of passengers, C. N. R. steamer Prince George, Capt. H. E. Nedden, arrived in port at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning from Vancouver, Ocean Falls and Powell River and sailed at 4 o'clock the same afternoon for Anyox and Stewart whence she returned here last evening southbound.

Norman A. McLean, purser of the steamer Prince George, has gone ashore in Vancouver for his annual vacation. Fred H. Coram is acting as purser of the Prince George on the present voyage north.

C. P. R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. Henry Anderson, is due in port at 5:45 this afternoon from the south and will sail at 10 p.m. in her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

Pacific Coast halibut fishing came to a close at midnight last night with only a few boats, mostly American, still on the banks. All boats will be accounted for within a week or ten days, it is expected.

CENTURY IN CARAVAN

CHERTSEY, Eng., Dec. 27: (CP)—Honor Matthews was born and lived in a caravan throughout the 103 years of her life. She died in a caravan recently at Fairfield, near here.

Miss Beulah McKinley was heard in piano solos over the local radio station on Christmas Eve.

Dr. J. P. Cade sailed last night on the Prince George for the south. He will spend a couple of weeks at Harrison Hot Springs.

BOYS' BAND JR. CHOIR

Featured Last Night On Weekly Program Of Junior Commerce Chamber

The Prince Rupert Boys' Band, under the leadership of Bandmaster Robert Greepfield, and the Booth Memorial School children's choir, conducted by J. S. Wilson, were featured last evening on the weekly radio program of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The numbers played by the Boys' Band were "Adeste Fidelis," "Ranger March," "Snowflake," an operatic medley with George Brown, Murino Bussanich and Terry Fortune in solo parts "Wandering Gypsy" and "Howard City March." The Booth School choir sang "The First Noel," "Sleep, Holy Babe," "Golden Slumbers," "Good King Wenceslas," "Shepherds Shake Off Your Drowsy Sleep" and "Deck The Hall With Boughs of Holly."

F. W. Wesch spoke briefly on behalf of the Prince Rupert Boys' Band Association. He thought the Boys' Band was playing its part in keeping boys usefully occupied. Forty boys had three practises each week and, if the money was available, forty more could be taken care of. Since the city commissioner had been in office, there had been no civic grant for the Boys' Band which had been kept going only as a result of funds raised by the parents. Even now $1000 was required to put the band in first-class shape.

J. S. Wilson spoke briefly on behalf of the Booth School choir. Other speakers of the evening were Earl Gordon, Miss Slevert, Jack Wrathall, Miss Mary Bremner and Horace Duhamel.

Misses Ruth Nelson and Jean McLean played a piano duet.

Roth Gordon and Clifford Gilker were announcers for the evening.

Dr. Dafoe In Xmas Message

Baptist Church Pastor Speaker At Rotary Luncheon Yesterday

Rev. Dr. F. W. Dafoe, pastor of First Baptist Church, was the speaker yesterday at the regular weekly luncheon of the Prince Rupert Rotary Club. He delivered a Christmas message to the service club. President W. M. Blackstock was in the chair and there was a fair attendance of members with a few guests—M. P. McCaffery, R. E. Moore and Rev. W. D. Grant Hollingworth.

Dr. Dafoe's subject was "Frozen Assets." In the course of his address he urged the Rotarians to bestir themselves individually and collectively and use the facilities which had been given them. He referred to the fact that many drifted through life without being conscious of what they might do if they only bestirred themselves. He spoke of the joy that came from bringing things to pass and, finally, suggested the carrying of the spirit of goodwill into their daily lives throughout the coming year.

The address was enlivened by a number of little sidelights or illustrations such as references to his own boyhood when he delivered newspapers in the city of Winnipeg and to a band which played only two tunes, one of which was "Auld Lang Syne" and the other was not. He spoke of misdirected ambition such as the person who could not sing but who always wanted to do so, of the person who could not make a speech yet was always wanting to talk and of the persons who, instead of preaching the gospel, discussed politics from the pulpit and, therefore, should have been in politics instead of in the ministry.
