HAZELTON BASEBALL TEAM IS READY FOR RUPERT'S

Officially Declared Champion Ball Team of Northern B.C. For 1911, The Hazelton Tigers Hope to Include a Live Prince Rupert Team in Next Years Schedule—Possible if Rupert Gets Park

Hazelton Tigers, the live baseball team of Prince Rupert's nearest neighboring centre up river, have just finished the season's series of matches with Telkwa and the G. T. P. Engineers, and are now officially declared winners of the Pea-vine League Pennant for the season of 1911. This makes them present champions of Northern B. C.

The standing of the teams at the close of the series was as follows:

	Won	Lost
Hazelton.....	5	2
Telkwa.....	2	2
(Forfeited last game)
G. T. P. Engineers.....	0	3

The last game with the Engineers at Hazelton on Labor Day was bitterly contested all the way through, and was won by Hazelton by a batting rally in the eighth inning. Graham Rock, the young Seattle high school athlete who pitched for Hazelton, struck out twenty of the railroaders. Live crowds witnessed the matches all through the series, and betting on favorite teams was brisk. On Labor Day there were 387 paid admissions to the grounds, and this did not include ladies who were exempt from the tag.

The Hazelton Tigers' team line-up includes the following: G. Rock, pitcher, R. Rock third base, Daniels short-stop, Kinney left-field, McDonnel first base, Riley second base, Pat Jennings catcher, Al. Harris right field, Stickney centre field, and "Square Deal" O'Neill, manager. Graham Rock, the star pitcher of the team, will try out with the Seattle team in the N. W. League next spring.

A schedule will be arranged for next season with Telkwa, Larkford, Hazelton, and if possible Prince Rupert. Mr. J. A. Riley, secretary of the Hazelton Athletic Association, is most anxious to include a Prince Rupert representative ball team in that schedule and hopes that his friends amongst the boys down here will keep the idea well in view. With the indoor league so flourishing there is no doubt about the talent, but it is imperative that continuous efforts be made while there is a chance of getting the athletic ground site secured from the city, and preliminary work done to level and prepare it for play early next summer.

The Prince Rupert is on her last run to Stewart for the season, and for the winter the Prince John takes up the Stewart run.

Grand Dance

PRINCE RUPERT PRODUCE TO FEATURE AT FESTIVAL

First "Harvest Home" Ever Held in This City Planned in S.A. Citadel on Monday—Successful Gardens of Prince Rupert Invited to Display Their Returns—Many Contributions Promised

Special efforts are being made by the Salvation Army officials stationed in the Prince Rupert Citadel to get up the first harvest festival ever held in Prince Rupert, and in spite of the ding-dong strife raging in the political arena at the moment it is confidently felt that within the walls of the Citadel on Monday night, 18th inst., there will be a big gathering, and a first harvest festival worthy of Prince Rupert. A feature of the idea is the effort being made by the Army officers working under direction of Captain Kerr, to have the festival represent as far as possible some of the flowers, vegetables, and garden produce grown within the city limits of Prince Rupert, and also some of the fine garden and agricultural produce grown in the districts neighboring, up river, and on Porcher Island for instance.

To display the powers of Prince Rupert to grow fine garden stuff, and beautiful flowers is the aim of the Army officers who will decorate the Citadel with as many samples of the Prince Rupert harvest as can be obtained. Those citizens who have made good as gardeners this season have an opportunity here to let others see what a little skill and trouble can do in Prince Rupert, and it is the aim of the S. A. to have the hall photographed when decorated so that the picture may be sent to headquarters in the East.

"DUFF" PATTULLO SCORES DICK McBRIDE'S PERFIDY

British Columbia's Premier Says "We Must Not Have Anything to do With the United States, Even Casually;"—At the Moment he is Handing Vast Timber and Agricultural Lands to American Speculators—Pattullo's Apostrophe to "The Greatest Canadian of Us All"

Although T. D. Pattullo has resigned his seat as alderman and is temporarily absent from Prince Rupert, he can be relied upon to be in the thick of the fight when a political contest is on and he may be expected here at the last grand rally of the Liberal party which will close the campaign. He is now in Victoria but is well acquainted all over the Dominion with the people and the general political trend of many of its constituencies. He has recently written to one of the leading dailies of Canada a brief review of the situation, addressing it to Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself, to whom he is personally well known. As anything Mr. Pattullo may have to say of a public character is of personal interest to the people of Prince Rupert, his communication to the whole Canadian people is given herewith:

"At a time when the Tory party and the Nationalists of

Quebec are pursuing the despicable tactics of trying to prejudice the Quebec electorate against Laurier by appeals to passion, it strikes one looking at the situation from long range that an especial duty devolves upon Ontario to stand by the man whose whole lifetime of service to his country has been one long preaching of a spirit of tolerance and a better understanding between the two races of Canada, which, for better or for worse, must join hand in hand for the upbuilding of our common country.

"Here in British Columbia we read that Laurier is taken to task in Quebec for starting a navy. Out here his opponents take him to task on the ground that we haven't any navy, while the Tory cohorts, lead by Premier McBride, endeavor to appeal to the large English population by waving the old flag and picturing the establishment of an Imperial capital at Ottawa, going so far as to say that 'we must have nothing to do with the United States, even in the most casual way,' and this at the very moment when the McBride Government has already alienated, not to American settlers, but to American speculators, a vast and tremendous portion of the timber and agricultural lands of the Province.

"DADDY" WEEKS AND HIS WEE STRAWBERRY PATCH

An Object Lesson From Scotland Proving by Actual Facts That Under Reciprocity Skeena Valley Strawberries Must Command the Best Prices in Both Home and Southern Markets

When Mr. L. W. Patmore in his speech on Tuesday night referred to the fact that "Daddy" Weeks of Kitsumkalum would get both the Prince Rupert and the Seattle market for his strawberries, and would not be in the least hurt by the effect of reciprocity in the cheapening for North B. C. Coast consumers, of Washington States vegetable and fruit, Mr. Patmore was convincingly right. The audience appreciated this and applauded. There is an exact parallel to the situation existing over in the Old Country at the present time which is worth looking into.

In the sunny valleys of the Blairgowrie district of Scotland is situated Scotland's strawberry country. Scotch strawberries are as famous in the markets of the old land, as Lakelse and Kitsumkalum strawberries deserve to be on the American continent. Scotch strawberries always fetch higher prices in all markets (even in their home market) than South Country strawberries. Their flavor is so much finer owing to their having grown in the more northerly latitude. They also command better prices, owing to their being grown in the more northerly latitude, they ripen just a week or two later than the English fruit, and are at their best on the market when the English product is getting lush and over-ripe so that it does not stand transportation well. Scottish strawberries get the table market at table prices for all their own season. South country berries get canning prices most of the time, and frequently quantities are dumped on the market at less than cost to save actual waste.

Just as the Blairgowrie Valley strawberries command always the best prices in London and Edinburgh markets in spite of English grown competitors, so will "Daddy" Weeks' Kitsumkalum strawberries, and the Lakelse Valley berries command always the best prices in the Prince Rupert, Vancouver, and Seattle markets under reciprocity (which places B. C. in the same trade relation with America as exists between Scotland and England, at least as regard fruit). Just as the Scotch strawberry commands the best part of the season at the best prices because it is grown in the more northerly latitude, so will "Daddy" Weeks' strawberries command a long market, and high prices. There can be no doubt about it. As Mr. Patmore said: "Daddy" Weeks will get not only his home market, but also the Seattle market, and at better prices even in Rupert, than the Seattle berries can command after transportation. Practical trade tests in the British field proves it.

MAYOR MANSON'S ABSENCE HOLDS UP CITY BUSINESS

Licensing Commissioners Have to Adjourn Till After Sept. 21st Because Their Chairman is Off With His "Heaven-born" Colleague Dr. Clayton, Stumping Comox-Atlin to Bolster up Clements

The licence commissioners met yesterday afternoon, Messrs. Smith and Merryfield attending. There were only two cases before the board, the application of Maurice Bondeaux for the transfer of the Windsor hotel to William H. Wright and George Sutherland's application for a bottle license.

On the motion of Alderman Smith the transfer of the Windsor hotel licence was allowed.

When the matter of the bottle licence came up Alderman Smith did not see how they could proceed with its consideration in the absence of the Mayor and therefore moved an adjournment. He stated that he did not know when the Mayor would return and an adjournment was therefore taken to September 27th.

Owing to the absence of the Mayor from his post of duty as chairman of the licensing commission, the work of the board has been held up until after the termination of the political campaign. It is well known in the city, of course, that the political situation and the urgent need for the bolstering up of Mr. Clements, the Conservative candidate for Comox-Atlin, are responsible for the absence of the Mayor and his henchman Alderman Clayton—that "heaven-born orator" according to Alderman Douglas. Both the "Heaven-born" and the Mayor are busy stumping it as hard as they can to bolster up their candidate, Clements, and meanwhile Prince Rupert citizens with a real regard for the good of their city are realising that a mayor who deserts the bridge of the Prince Rupert civic ship when there is plenty of work to do there, in order to try and bolster into Comox-Atlin a Vancouver man who has persistently knocked Prince Rupert, might, to put it mildly, be improved upon.
