Children's Story

The Children's Story Hour took the form of a special meeting this morning in the Elks' Hall for all children from 4 to 12 inclusive. Miss Venetia Feero opened the program with piano solos following which Mrs. F. E. Robertson told a story about sleigh bells. A fairy then sang "Jingle Bells." Mrs. Neal Carter's story was about evergreen trees and a little bird. Miss Winnie Cameron told a story about decorating the Christmas tree. Everyone sang "Jungle Bells." A surprise visit a few cheery words for the chil-the 144 who were there. The hour was brought to a close with a grand march.

The Story Hour will meet again on January 11 for all children 9 to Hour Meeting 12 inclusive. The program will be in charge of Mrs. J. R. Morison, Mrs. G. A. Bryant and Miss W. Cameron.
