Wanderer of the Wasteland" And "Love in Bloom" at Capitol-No Show Tenight Owing To Meeting

A colorful outdoor drama, "Wanderer of the Wasteland," picturizacon of the well known Zane Grey larity, and a gay melody comedyromance film, "Love in Bloom," are the two ends of a double bill coming to the Capitol Insatre here Saturday afternoon and evening, there being no show tonight owing to the Liberal campaign meeting.

The story of "Wanderer of the Wasteland" is laid against the picturesque desert country of the west in the days when bands of outlaws roamed the desert wastes preying on gold prospectors. The romance centres about Dean Jagger, young Easterner, who, on his way to the badlands, meets and falls in love with Gail Patrick, also travelling to the gold country with her parents. Jagger becomes accidentally involved in a killing and is forced to flee into the desert. There is a dramatic climax. Buster badminton (111) Crabbe, Monte Blue, Raymond Hatton, Al St. John and Anna Q. Milston are other well known mem-R. A. Body Has Membership bers of the cast.

New songs, crisp comedy and a touching love story are the ingredients of "Love in Bloom" in which Joe Morrison, Dixie Lee, George Burns and Gracie Allen are fea-
