EFFORTS TO TIE UP ALL COASTWISE VESSELS EXCEPT THOSE OF UNION STEAMSHIP CO .-JOHN MAY NOT SAIL TONIGHT.

VANCOUVER, June 15: (CP)—When the shipping federation refused to negotiate with the longshore strikers except as individuals, the Longshore and Water Transport Workers Union called a general strike effective at 7 o'clock this morning.

Up to noon today about 2,700 men were on strike, including the longshoremen at New Westminster.

The strike order was only partially obeyed on Vancouver Island. At Victoria the men were still working.

Efforts are being made to tie up all coastwise vessels except the Union Steamships but the Canadian Pacific fleet is operating on schedule and the Canadian National is not affected as yet.

The Empress of Japan cleared for the Orient and the Of Hornby Scheme work of loading eight vessels now in the harbor continued today.

> VANCOUVER, June 15, 12:30 p.m. (CP)—This afternoon it was reported that the steamship Prince John, scheduled to sail northward tonight may be tied up as a number of the crew walked ashore. Unless there is a sudden change in the situation the Prince George, due here Sunday may be tied up.

> The unions involved include the Coastwise Longshoremen and the Freight Handlers, the New Westminster Waterfront Workers and the Vancouver Export Log Workers, the Seafarers' Industrial Union, the Ship Lining and Fitting Workers, and the longshoremen at Nanoose, Chemainus and Nanaimo.
