Baron Aloisi Says His Country Insists on Military Occupation

PARIS, Aug. 16:—Prime Minister Pierre Laval of France and Capt. Anthony Eden of Great Britain were reported yesterday to have reached an accord preliminary to the conference opening today between representatives of Great Britain, France and Italy when the Italo-Ethiopian crisis will be discussed. Laval and Eden are understood to have agreed that discussion of the conference should be limited to possible League of Nations action in the crisis.

Hopes are still expressed that the British delegate may submit a basis of negotiations which will result in a peaceful settlement of the issue.

Following separate conferences with the British and Italian representatives yesterday, Premier Laval was openly pessimistic last night regarding the outcome of the conference.

A secret session, attended today by Capt. Anthony Eden, Premier Laval and Baron Pompeo Aloisi of Italy may result in alteration of Ethiopia's map and a change in the African Empire's economic life. Late this afternoon Premier Laval announced that he was doing everything to meet the Italian wishes.

Last night Baron Aloisi informed Capt. Eden that Italy's minimum demand for a peaceful settlement of the dispute was the occupation of Ethiopia by the Italian army.

Grandfather's Bequests Make Him Richest Boy

Young Peter Rogers, who was revealed as the favorite of his grandfather, the late Col. Henry Huddleston Rogers, when the will of the financier was probated in Riverhead, L.I., receives from the estate of late Standard Oil Tycoon wealth sufficient to make him probably the richest boy in the world, with more potentian power than his namesake King Peter of Jugoslavia will ever have. Born after his father, Count Sa[illegible]n of Austria (above) and his mother, present Millicent Rogers Ramos (top, left) parted, he is shown in a succession of family album photographs. In addition to bequests from the estate he gets largest share of the personal property of Col. Rogers, which ranges from fishing tackle to w[illegible] trophies and jewelry

"The Scarlet Pimpernel" is Week-End Feature at Capitol Theatre

A spectacular and romantic drama of adventure adapted from Baroness Orczy's widely read novel, "The Scarlet Pimpernel," coming to the Capitol Theatre here this week-end, is featured, it is said, by the magnificent acting of Leslie Howard in the finest portrayal of an already distinguished screen career. He is given splendid support by Merle Oberon, the Anne Boleyn of "Henry VIII" and the Japanese wife of "Thunder in the East." Raymond Massey, the noted Canadian actor and brother of Hon. Vincent Massey, also has an important role.

Leslie Howard, as Sir Percy Blakeney, gives a subtle combination of the romantic, the fatuous and the adventurous. Miss Oberon is delightful in her portrayal of Lady Blakeney. Massey is excellent as the traitor Chauvelin. There is also a splendid supporting cast.

Dramatic situations are neatly turned by clever comedy, the spirit of adventure and romance are smoothly preserved and the staging is superb. The picture has been looked forward to for some time by local moviegoers and in view of its general appeal, it is expected that the showing here will prove as popular as it has in all other cities.

Pork Selling At Fifty Cents Per Pound in States

OKLAHOMA, Aug. 16:—Pork reached a new all time high price of 50c per pound here yesterday.

ANNETTE IS BACK FROM THE SOUTH

Visited Fashion Show at Seattle Where Manufacturers Display Wares—Bought Stockings Before Duty Imposed

Mrs. Annette Woods arrived home this morning from a business visit to Vancouver, Seattle and Portland where she has been buying for the Annette Ladywear Store. She attended the manufacturers style show where the latest things from New York, Chicago and Los Angeles were seen.

Due to the strike in the industry in the east, Annette bought a look of British Columbia goods which compare very favorably with those made in the east. She also made a big purchase of pure silk stockings before the new forty percent tariff came into force and she says Prince Rupert people will be given the benefit of the purchase.

Next week Annette is putting on a big sale and she will have a Carnival display at her store all week.

Rev. M. H. Lawrence, Anglican missionary at Kitkatla, who has been spending a vacation in the south, arrived in the city on the Prince George this morning from Vancouver.
