Historic Aeroplane Now Operating in North Canada

Not satisfied with an already long list of outstanding achievements, this aeroplane, the only all-metal tri-motor in use in Canada, is writing more history under the expert guidance of Pilot Grant McConachie, of United Air Transport. In 1928 this big machine rescued Baron Gunther von Huenfeld, Capt. James Fitmaurice and Capt. Hermann Koehl, after they were first down in the first east to west transatlantic flight on lonely Greenly island off the coast of Labrador. Then it flew the mother of Col. Charles Lindbergh from Mexico City to New York when the latter was making his North and South American flight. Now it is blazing new trails in northern Canada, carrying out perishable white fish from the Buffalo Lake Post, Sask., to Cheecham, Alberta, for quick shipment to Chicago and New York. McConachie is one of Canada's outstanding northern fliers.

WHIFFLETS
From the Waterfront

In regard to prices shown in the Waterfront Whiffs on Saturday for which frozen halibut is being held, it is pointed out that these are the figures on the New York markets from which at least 6½c must be deducted to cover transportation, sales expenses, freezing and boxing before the "home price" can be shown. Thus, if the price in New York was 12c, no more than 5½c would be netted here.

Capt. R. Gammon with the Zenardi and Capt. Ole Skog with the Fredelia are continuing herring seining operations in the harbor, the former for the Rupert Marine Products reduction plant and the latter for the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. Good catches were made yesterday.

C. G. S. Malaspina, Capt. A. Henderson, is in port today for fuel. The vessel has come north for patrol of the halibut fishing grounds in anticipation of the opening of the 1935 fishing season this week.

On a regular fortnightly voyage to Alaska, C. P. R. steamer Princess Norah, Capt. Thomas Cliff, arrived in port at 12:30 noon yesterday from Vancouver and sailed an hour later for Skagway and other northern points whence she is scheduled to return here on Thursday afternoon southbound. The vessel had 78 passengers aboard on arriving here, six disembarking here while twenty went north from this port.

With a fair-sized list of passengers, Union steamer Cardena, Capt. James Findlay, arrived in port at 6:15 last evening from the south and sailed at 8 p.m. for Anyox, Stewart and other northern points whence she will return here tomorrow morning and sail at 1:30 p.m. for Vancouver and waypoints.

Some 150 carloads or 200,000 bushels of grain were reported today to be on the way from the prairies to the Alberta Wheat Pool's local elevator. Thirteen cars of wheat arrived over the week-end.

Vancouver papers printed front page pictures and gave much publicity to a large cargo loaded last week by the steamer Anglo-Colombian at the southern port. Actually, the Anglo-Colombian took very little more than did the big grain ship Frumenton which loaded a cargo of grain for the United Kingdom or Continent from the Alberta Wheat Pool's local elevator last week.

TWO FILMS ATTRACTIVE

"Limehouse Blues" and "Pursuit Of Happiness" on Screen of Capitol Theatre

"Limehouse Blues" a thrilling love story of the Chinese section of London, one of the world's most sinister and glamorous underworlds, and "The Pursuit of Happiness," a comedy of Colonial times adapted from the Broadway stage success, comprise an attractive double bill being presented at the first of this week on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here.

"Limehouse Blues" presents exciting melodrama in connection with a love tale of pathos and tenderness. George Raft, Jean Parker and Anna May Wong have the principal roles in a story dealing with the notorious Thames River pirates. Raft is a man of mixed Oriental and western blood who, through cunning and ruthlessness, has risen to the chieftainship of the river pirates. He falls hopelessly in love with a white girl played by Miss Parker but Miss Wong, a Chinese cafe dancer, becomes jealous and plots against the girl. Kent Taylor plays an important part as Miss Parker's white suitor. A thrilling climax comes when Raft comes to realize that the girl's happiness is more important to him even than her love.

"Pursuit of Happiness" is a comedy of Revolutionary times and customs in love making. Francis Lederer plays the part of a shy but handsome Hessian soldier who falls in love with Joan Bennett, a pretty Puritan. Charlie Ruggles and Mary Boland, as the latter's parents, have important comedy roles.
