District News

SMITHERS

Don Sutherland, district agriculturalist with headquarters here for the past few years, was advised this week of his transfer to Kamloops in a similar capacity. He will be missed throughout the district.

George W. Smith is receiving a visit from a brother whom he has not seen for fifty-one years.

The Smithers Athletic Club was able to realize a profit from a turkey shoot conducted during the past week and a number of crack shots were able to take home their Christmas dinner.

At a session of County Court here this week Judge W. E. Fisher refused an application of the Columbia Power Co. for permission to sell the property of William Thorne to satisfy a judgment for costs arising out of an unsuccessful action started against the company by Thorne last June.

Chris Dahlie has refused to consider a proposal that he be sent to the Olympic Games in Germany. Dahlie is the central interior's star ski expert.

R. W. Champlin is confined to his home suffering from a painful foot injury sustained while cutting wood.

Alternate thaws and frosts have brought dangerous traffic conditions just now to the roads in and around Smithers.

Olof Hanson, M.P. for Skeena, arrived in town on Tuesday from Prince Rupert and returned on Thursday to the coast.

Conrad Stordal is limping around town, having sustained a painful but not serious foot injury recently when a log rolled on his toe while he was working on the government road.

Mrs. C. Cox of Hazelton has been a visitor in Smithers this week in connection with a case in County Court.

Mrs. E. Thompson of Tatlow is making a good recovery in the Smithers Hospital following a recent operation.

J. E. Kirby is making a satisfactory recovery from a recent illness.

Mrs. L. B. Warner returned to Smithers at the end of last week after spending a few days visiting in Prince Rupert.

NEW HAZELTON

The new station building at Pacific is now nearing completion and early in the New Year is expected to be ready for occupation. It replaces the former station which was destroyed by fire a year or so ago.

Construction will start next spring of a new and up-to-date community hall at Hazelton. It will have a foundation and measure 80 by 36 feet. The site has not yet been definitely decided upon. The committee having the project in hand consists of R. S. Sargent, Cooper Wrinch, Mat Myros, James Turnbull and Mrs. W. S. Russell.

VANDERHOOF

The provincial department of public works has completed the construction of a new ferry at Finmoore. It is similar in type to that at Engen.

Rev. B. S. Prockter conducted morning service in Holy Trinity Church here on Sunday last.

Last evening the teachers of the Vanderhoof High and public school gave their annual Christmas entertainment in the Canadian Legion Hall. The pupils presented a comedy, musical play, musical novelty, several new dances and a number of other items.

George A. Balfour, special descriptive writer on the staff of the Southam Press, was a visitor here recently in the course of a tour of the central interior.

Mrs. Thomas Porter, who was taken to the Prince George Hospital recently, is making a satisfactory recovery.

Corp. Wall of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police left here this week for Williams Lake where he is to establish a new detachment. His successor here is Corp. E. H. Clarke who has arrived from Prince Rupert.

R. G. Matthews has been awarded the contract to supply and place storm windows on the Vanderhoof School.

PRINCE GEORGE

J. A. F. Campbell is making a satisfactory recovery following a recent operation in the local hospital.

The Catholic Women's League is holding a tea and sale of home cooking in the ballroom of the Prince George Hotel this afternoon.

Last evening the residents of the Chief Lake district gathered at the schoolhouse where the annual Christmas entertainment was held.

STEWART

In keeping with the Christmas season, Stewart storekeepers have displayed ingenuity and skill in the arrangement of their Christmas goods, special decorations lending a true holiday effect. Stores at Hyder are also gay and well stocked.

General business, routine matters and correspondence were attended to at the town council meeting last week.

Catholic School Concert Enjoyed

Program Presented By Children Wednesday And Thursday Evenings

A most delightful and interesting program was presented on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week by the pupils of the Annunciation School.

The parents of the pupils and many friends filled the school auditorium and all were enthusiastic in their praise of the splendid rendition of the various numbers.

The program: Opening Chorus, "Sailing," "The Pipes of Fairylund," Song, "Good Night, Dinne, and God Bless You," "Tommy Tomkins"

Recitation, "Little Pup," Hymn, "Glory to God," Dance, "Japanese Fantasy," Song, "Michael's Flute," Harmonica Band, selection, Dialogue, "Christmas Secrets," Play, Mrs. Plodding's Nieces," Song, "Grandma Danced the Minuet," Drill, "Dumb Bells," Playlette, "Christmas Guests," Tableau, "Bethlehem," Hymn, "Hark What Mean Those Holy Voices," School Song, O Canada, Accompanists were Frances Moore and Charlotte Balagno.

Further reports received from the interior confirm previously published statements in the Daily News of increased activity in the way of sawmilling in the Prince George district as a result of the new American-Canadian trade agreements. Mills that have been at a standstill for several years are now in operation and others are re-opening.
