FILM IS MUSICAL

"Gold Diggers of 1935" at Capitol Theatre This Week-End.

Carrying unique and unusual numbers, fine song hits and hilarious fun, "Gold Diggers of 1935," mammoth musical spectacle, comes to the Capitol Theatre here as the week-end feature offering.

The story is a rollicking comedy, with three separate love tangles. There is a play within a play, a wealthy widow producing a milk fund show at a swanky summer hotel. Dick Powell and Gloria Stuart have the romantic leads while Frank McHugh and Dorothy Dare have a semi-comic love affair as Glenda Farrell takes an eccentric millionaire over the jumps. Alic Brady has the role of a rich widow who is bilked of a considerable fortune by a theatre producer, played by Adolphe Menjou. Joseph Cawthorn is a scenic and costume artist and Grant Mitchell, a hotel manager. Winifred Shaw, former musical comedy stage star, sings as well as Dick Powell, Ramon and Rosita, dancers, and three hundred beautiful girls appear in the dance numbers.
