People There Are Contented And Doing Well, Declares Salvation Army Commandant

"So far the farmers who have been placed on the land in the Matanuska Valley by the United States government are doing quite well, are well cared for and contented and. I believe, have a good chance of making good."

Such is the statement of Adjuvisited the Matanuska Valley during the past summer in the course of an extended tour of Alaska on Army business.

For Years

Mrs. M., an up-country resident, writes that her family has used Pacific Milk for years. That's a big endorsement in itself. So when a patron writes and tells us they have given preference to this good milk year after year for years, it is about as great a compliment to Pacific Milk as can be paid.
