LEISHMAN
Hand-Tailored Clothes

We are happy to make this announcement as we believe it will be of interest to many men in our community who know and appreciate hand-tailored clothes.

Fine British woollens, hand-tailored, is the foundation of Leishman quality. For many years discriminating men have bought Leishman Clothes on quality alone and their trust has never been misplaced. Every Leishman garment is distinguished by the soft custom ease of exclusive hand-tailoring. Into every important detail — from designing, cutting, button sewing and button-hole making, to collar and sleeve sewing—goes the scrupulous handiwork of the craftsman. That is why Leishman Clothes are so shapely and easy fitting to the last day of service.

Come in and see the new styles, colours, weaves and patterns in suits and topcoats, either Ready-To-Wear or Made-To-Measure.

Price $35.00 to $60.00.

Orders Thousand Rose Trees From Victoria Nursery

Phil Edgcumbe has put in an order for a thousand rose trees to be delivered in the spring, orders for which he is taking now. He has already sold a number and he is expecting to fill the local demand so that the Horticultural Society will not need to take action this year. He is selling strong trees at 25c each, similar to those imported last year only with a much wider choice of varieties. (32)

Limericks

A peculiar man came from Wales,
Who lived on green grass and fat snails,
When he couldn't get these
He tried to catch fleas,
That live on the backs of Sperm Whales!

Our fire broke out Friday morning,
Its victims had not any warning,
Some rushed to the street
But froze their bare feet,
Notwithstanding their shirt tails were burning.

With temperatures hanging at zero,
Premier Bennett should be a great hero,
For the "hot air" that flows
From our radios,
Can beat all the fires of Nero.

I read the Prince Rupert News,
It's something I sure hate to lose,
I read it all through,
And I'm satisfied too,
A better paper, no one could choose.

A young lady of Rupert went skiing,
Down Oldfield she went gaily fleeing,
Till her skiis they got crossed,
As her balance she lost,
What strange sights I seem to be seeing!"

There was a young fellow named Green,
Who grew so terribly lean,
That his back touched his breast,
And he grew so compressed,
That from sideways he couldn't be seen.

General Hornby Speaker Before Women of Legion

Brigadier-General M. L. Hornby of Lethbridge, Alta., gave a brief but interesting address last night before the Women's Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion at its regular monthly meeting last night on the subject of "Encouraging British Subjects to Settle in Canada." Mrs. Jack Preece, president of the Auxiliary, was in the chair.

Business of the meeting included the decision to hold a benefit dance on February 22 to aid sufferers in the recent Second Avenue fire.

ROGERS IN FINE FILM

Irvin S. Cobb Writes Great Story For Screen's Popular Character Actor

"Judge Priest," a story by one of America's most noted authors and humorists in the person of Irvin S. Cobb, gives Will Rogers one of the finest and most human roles he has ever played on the screen, it is said. The picture is the week-end feature offering at the Capitol Theatre here. The popular series of stories by Cobb has been used as the basis for this screen history of the shrewd and wise Kentucky judge who flourished in Paducah in the late years of the past century.

Rich human interest, it is said, blends with laughter and tears in the tale of a sleepy southern town which still is not too sleepy to cradle stirring drama. Will Rogers takes the part of the ex-Confederate soldier who dilutes justice with the milk of human kindness and who saves from disaster a helpless girl and the father whom she has never known.

The cast in support of Rogers includes such popular screen personages as Anita Louise, Tom Brown, Rochelle Hudson, Henry B. Walthall, David Landau and Stepin Fetchit.
