during the year 1934 was only 54,731 volumes, a decrease of eleven percent from that in 1933, it is gratifyng to note that a steadily increasing number of citizens are recorded is borrowers," said the secretary's eport at the annual meeting of the ibrary board last night. "Approxinately 3852 residents of this city and immediate vicinity are listed as patrons of the library book shelves.

"Perhaps the most important advancement which the library made during the year was the acquisition of a more suitable building, with enough available floor space to alrived in the city from the south on low for expansion, With the assisthe Prince George Wednesday and tance of the provincial government will proceed to the interior on this authorities and the city commisafternoon's train. "As the library received no civic appropriation for new books in 1934 the public drive, which provided six hundred and seventy-eight dollars towards restocking the library Sale Success shelves, deserves special mention.

"It is very encouraging to observe the interest which has been displayed by the various organizations and the people in general, when the library has required active Mrs. J. Croteau, who arrived in and sale of home cooking was held support, financially, by gift of books or in personal service.

"Only through this support has the library been able to remain a real asset to the community."

Librarian's Report

"For the year 1934 a striking decline is noted in the number of books added to the library," said the librarian's report. "The net gain in books was only 109 in comparison with 257 of the year before. This decrease may be due to the fact that so many books were disearded-588 in 1933, 865 in 1934. Probably the lack of binding has been responsible for the increased number of discards. Mending has done something towards checking this decline.

"A decrease of 14,175 in circulation may also be noted. This may be due, partly to the lack of new books in the library, partly to the fact that the depression appears to be
