TERRACE

Harold Winch, C.C.F. member for Vancouver East, was the principal speaker at a well attended public gathering in the Oddfellows' Hall last Thursday

The farmers of Remo conducted a strawberry socia' on Saturday, many of the younger people attended, some going over the long and poor road south of the river while the more fortunate got a ride on a railway speeder. A few enthusiasts hiked it, having left their cars at Goodwin's Ranch with some three miles to hit the ties. Dewey Atkinson's Orchestra contributed to the success of the event. Very fine strawberries which Remo produces were served.

Bishop G. A. Rix of Prince Rupert, spent last week-end at Terrace. Confirmation of five candidates was held on Saturday and on Sunday the Bishop addressed the Anglican congregation at the morning and evening services.

It is lovely weather these days—not too hot with a maximum of 80. A good many wives and the youngsters are out picking the wild raspberries which are very plentiful this year.

Pretty Wedding Of Local Lady

Miss Netta Clark Becomes Bride Of R. W. Sinclair of Inverness Cannery Today

One of the popular and well known young ladies of Prince Rupert was married this afternoon at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cullin, Fourth Avenue East, when Miss J. A. H. (Netta) Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Clark, became the bride of R. W. Sinclair, accountant at Inverness Cannery. Miss Clark, who has been in Victoria for some time, arrived this morning on the steamer Prince Rupert. She looked very charming in Marina Blue with a corsage of pale pink rosebuds. She was given away by Robert G. Johnston, manager of Inverness cannery and the best man was G. F. Tough, also of Inverness. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. F. W. Dafoe and Rev. B. Shearman was also present. Guests present were only immediate friends of the contracting parties.

The house was prettily decorated for the occasion with delphiniums, roses and other seasonable flowers.

Following lunch Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair and party left on the launch Florence for Inverness where a reception is being given for them by Mrs. R. G. Johnston and Mrs. Sherman

VIENNESE ROMANCE

Tunesome Music Among Many Attractive Features of "The Night is Young"

Nights of love, days of laughter and the haunting spell of romantic Vienna are echoed in "The Night is Young," a glamorous musical romance, which is the mid-week feature attraction at the Capitol Theatre. Tunesome music by Oscar Hammerstein II and Sigmund Romberg is one of the outstanding features of the picture in which music, drama, comedy and romance are deftly blended. Some clever and novel devices have been instituted in bringing in the music. With a continental flavor, the story is spectacularly staged.

Ramon Novarro plays the part of a debonair young archduke and he does a good deal of singing. Evelyn Laye, with piquant personality, beauty and a fine voice, appears as a little ballet dancer. Comedy honors are divided between Edward Everett Horton, Charles Butterworth, Una Merkel and Herman Bing. Rosalind Russell, Henry Stephenson, Donald Cook, Charles Judels and Alberta Conti also have important roles.

Song hits include "When I Grow Too Old to Dream," "Old Man Mare," "The Night is Young," "Wiener Schnitzel," "When I am a Noble Duchess," "Lena, I Love You" and "Riot in Havana." The costumes fit in with the gorgeous settings which include the Vienna Opera, Emperor's Palace and Prater or amusement park.
