From the Waterfront

The Armour Salvage Co. speedily stranded and sank in Metlakatla Passage late Sunday night while bound here with a catch of 9000 pounds of halibut. The sunken vessel was lashed to the derrick scow and brought into the McLean ways where she will be repaired. Her forefoot was crushed and seams sprung but damage was not as extensive as might have been at first anticipated. The Addington had the misfortune to strike a rock and sink a couple of years ago off Dundas Island.

BUY IN PRINCE RUPERT

Because:

- 1. Local stores give good value for the money expended.
- 2. You can inspect the goods before buying.
- 3. Many stores allow returns if not satisfactory. 4. Local stores have a reputation to maintain.
- 5. Pictures are deceiving and mail order goods are
- seldom what they are expected to be. 6. By buying at home you are helping Prince Rupert.
- 7. By buying at home you are providing bread for local people. 8. By buying at home every dollar circulates and
- will return to you. 9. Discourage the sweatshop labor that supplies the
- mail order houses. 10. By buying at home your purchases circulate. Think what this means to your own little family.
