Shower Held

A week prior to the wedding, at the Mine Hall, the bride was surprised to find herself the guest of honor at a party consisting of seventy-five lady friends. The afby fair took the form of a shower, the gifts being contained in a large barrel topped by a miniature bride and groom. The bride-to-be was duly feted and received a large number of handsome and useful gifts. Mrs T. W. Pinckney rendered a vocal solo and dainty refreshments were served. The guests were afterwards joined by their gentlemen friends and a session of dancing was indulged in. The committee in charge of the affair comprised Miss Lucy Phillies the same day.
