French Statesmen Insist That Parley Must Squarely Meet Grave Issue Caused by Germany's Violation Of Treaty of Versailles

STRESA, Italy, April 11: (CP)—French statesmen, fighting for their views as to the sanctity of treaties, went into action at the conference today with Great Britain and Italy, apparently determined to make France's appeal to the League of Nations against Germany's action in violating the re-armament provisions of the Treaty of Versailles the basis for all actions by the government. France insists that the conference must squarely meet the grave issue caused by Germany's violation of the military clauses of the Versailles pact.

LIQUOR CUT MAY FIRST

Reduction in Price to Come Into Effect Then—Plebiscite On Beer and Wine In Restaurants

VICTORIA, April 11: (CP)—British Columbia liquor prices will be reduced about 50c a quart on May 1 if present plans of the Liquor Control Board materialize. There will be no reduction in the price of beer which is not affected by the reduction in federal prices. Although it is officially denied that the question has been considered, the possibility is being debated in various circles that the government, using power under the Liquor Control Act, may hold a plebiscite this year on the proposal to allow eating houses to sell beer and wine.

Where European Peace Conference Is Being Held

New photo (Top) of Stresa, picturesque Italian small town where Sir John Simon (Top), British foreign minister, meet today for conversations upon which peace of Europe may depend. In background is the historic Bella Island, fronting the town on Lake Maggiore. Mussolini arrived at Stresa last night, piloting his own seaplane from Rome. Premier J. Ramsay MacDonald and Foreign Secretary Simon of England, having joined Premier Flandin and Foreign Minister Laval of France in Paris last night, reached Stresa this morning. The conference opened at 10:30 this morning. England hopes to act as mediator for Germany, whose decision to re-arm in spite of the Versailles treaty, brought about the crisis. Italy and France demand realistic action in bringing Germany to account.

MANY PAY RESPECTS

Masonic Honors Accorded Late George M. Sutherland at Funeral Today

Many members of the Masonic craft as well as pioneer friends generally paid their final tributes of respect to the memory of George M. Sutherland, esteemed resident of many years standing in Prince Rupert, whose funeral took place this afternoon. Following the opening of a Masonic service at the Masonic Temple at 2:30, a church service took place at 3 o'clock in St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral with Very Rev. James B. Gibson, the dean, officiating and Peter Lien presiding at the organ to accompany the hymns. Timpsean Lodge No. 58, A. F. & A. M., then took charge and there was a Masonic committal service under the direction of the worshipful master, G. V. Wilkinson, interment being made in the Masonic plot at Fairview Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Ex-Mayor C. H. Orme, R. E. Benson, J. J. Little, J. G. Steen, J. H. Thompson and Thomas McClymont. There were many beautiful floral tributes.

WORKERS' VICTORY

Report of Mediation Board in Pacific Coast Marine Workers' Dispute of Last Year

SAN FRANCISCO, April 11:—A substantial increase in wages for several thousand longshoremen and marine workers on the Pacific Coast as well as a reduction in working hours is recommended by the federal mediation board on last year's shipping strike. The report was made public yesterday. Tanker seamen at present on strike are not included in the report.

Five marine workers' unions have asked for mediation of the present strike dispute between seamen and oil companies. Unless there is an immediate settlement of this strike, it is suggested that there may be another general strike of marine workers.
