Choice Difficult For Fall Dinners

Turkey Shortage Forces Prices Up—Housewives Change Menus

REGINA, Oct. 30: (CP)—Housewives with an eye on the budget are finding their outlay for traditional fall spreads running into figures considerably higher than last year, particularly where turkey prove, the highlight of the banquet.

A scarcity of turkeys on the Regina market is the reason, a cold, late spring being the cause of the shortage. Prices as a result are considerably higher. In some homes the "piece de resistance" was the logical substitute—pork, and here the shopper found a 30 percent increase.

Chickens also are at a premium on the market, although they are in larger numbers. Prices jumped from 22c to 25c a pound. Last year's prices for chickens was 15 cents.

Beef prices, however, are very slightly changed and here the thrifty cook was able to turn her knowledge to account with some tempting dishes using dressed meat as the special fare.

Organized by the Women's Freedom League, the petition will request the King "to ask the governments in the United Kingdom and each of the Dominions to consent to the adoption of uniform legislation to give the married women independent nationality in her own person, in the same terms as a man or single woman."

In July a petition was presented in the House of Commons signed by women's societies in every Dominion, asking the government to remove the disabilities of married women in matters of nationality.
