ALBERNI SITUATION

An unfortunate situation seems to have arisen at Alberni in connection with the federal election. A. W. Neill has been representing the district as an independent for many years and representing it well. Recently a Liberal convention was held which nominated a Liberal candidate in opposition to Mr. Neill. It was claimed that the convention did not represent the whole riding so another was called which unanimously and enthusiastically endorsed Mr. Neill. The man who had seconded the nomination of Alexander McNeill, the Liberal at the previous convention, said he had done so through false representations made to him and he was now prepared to support Mr. Neill.

The majority of the Liberals of the riding are now evidently supporting the independent candidate, Mr. Neill and will support and probably elect him.

The C. C. F. party has already nominated two men and a third is said to be considering the possibility of becoming a candidate.

QUESTION OF VALUES

The editor of a newspaper published in New York State is said to have received the following letter:

"Please send a few copies of the paper containing the obituary of my aunt. Also publish the enclosed clipping on the marriage of my niece. And I wish you would mention in your local column, if it doesn't cost anything, that I have two nice puppies for sale. As my subscription is out, please stop the paper, as times are too hard to waste money on newspapers."

YANKS WIN ONCE MORE

Scored Another Victory Over Detroit Tigers Yesterday—Battle For Third Place

DETROIT, Aug. 21: (CP)—The New York Yankees made it two straight wins over the Detroit Tigers yesterday, thus reducing the margin of the American League leaders to six full games. The Cleveland Indians won over the Washington Senators at Cleveland and are in fifth place but half a game behind the Red Sox.

In the National League, the New York Giants won a 10-inning game from the Cincinnati Reds at the Polo Grounds and are still three games ahead of the world champion St. Louis Cardinals who eked out a close victory over the Braves at Boston.

LEWIS STONE REAL GENTLEMAN OF SCREEN, VISITS PRINCE RUPERT.

he is so much like his pictures—although possibly a little taller than one might expect.

Mr. Stone has been on this cruise since July 20 when the Serena left Los Angeles. The northern extremity of the cruise was Sitka with calls at some of the more important points on the way up the coast. After leaving here this morning at 9:30, the Serena, which arrived at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Alaska, was to cruise by leisurely stages down the British Columbia coast, visiting a number of points of interest. The famous actor is due home in Los Angeles the second week in September. It is planned to go outside from Seattle and sail home.

Talks of Pictures

Mr. Stone seemed almost surprised to hear that "David Copperfield," the last picture in which he was seen here (as Mr. Wickfield), had proven so popular in Prince Rupert. He quite frankly expressed the opinion that he had not thought "David Copperfield" would be a picture of very wide appeal.

Modest in regard to his own performances, Mr. Stone disclosed that, since "David Copperfield," he had appeared in "China Seas," an adventure story of piracy on the China coast, in which Wallace Beery, Jean Harlow and Clarke Gable have prominent parts, as well as "Anchors Away," a story dealing with the training of United States Navy officers starting from the rank of midshipman. The latter, Mr. Stone remarked was an authentic record of the subject, most of it being actually filmed at Annapolis Academy. Dick Powell and Ruby Keeler are the juvenile interest.

"Frankly, I don't know what my next picture will be," said Mr. Stone. "I haven't heard what they are lining up for me," the M. G. M. star added.

Mr. Stone took occasion to recommend "Les Miserables" coming here this week-end, to local moviegoers. "Freddie March and Charles Laughton give wonderful portrayals," he remarked.

Naturally, the conversation veered around to mention of the late lamented Will Rogers. "A wonderful person," remarked Mr. Stone simply, "one whom it will just be impossible to replace. I do not mean merely as an actor or as a humorist but as a man and a citizen. Around Hollywood he will be greatly missed. The world can ill afford to lose him." Mr. Stone learned at Juneau of Mr. Rogers' death.

Accompanying Mr. Stone aboard the yacht are Mrs. Stone, who incidentally has never had anything to do with the moving pictures, Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Fraick and Mr. and Mrs. Cy Grant, all of Los Angeles.

The Serena is a fine 105-foot schooner, luxuriously appointed and beautifully kept up. She is equipped with a 175 h.p. Winton diesel engine but Mr. Stone admits that sailing is his favorite mode of propulsion. His skipper is Capt. Grimstead who has been with him for eleven years.
