thing. She plans to see the other side of life and its real romance.

To the men she meets she is just another attractive young woman. Her personal affairs and even her identity, have been delegated to her secretary-companion. She is attracted to Anthony Trevis, a broker's clerk, and decides to test his love without the magnet of the dollar. A surprise comes in a bombshell climax.

The story unravels against magnificent backgrounds-huge Long Island estates, Adirondack lodges and trans-Atlantic steamers. The film also presents a striking display of new fashions by Miss Hopkins and Fay Wray.

Joel McCrea has the leading male role. Other important players are Reginald Denny and Henry Steph-
