HEAVY TERMS FOR THROWING SWITCH

Interior Indians Get Long Sentences in Pen For Near Train Wreck

Arthur Sutherland to Do Sixteen Years at Penitentiary And Joe Isaac, Seventeen Years, Following Trial at Smithers

SMITHERS, Oct. 29: (CP)—Two Indians, Arthur Sutherland, aged 19, and Joe Isaac, 28, both from Fraser Lake, were sentenced to penitentiary terms of sixteen and seventeen years respectively with hard labor by Judge H. E. A. Robertson in County Court here for attempting to derail a Canadian National mixed train near Bulkley Canyon on September 27 last.

The police reported the men as stating after their arrest that they did it for fun and wanted to see a wreck.

Alertness of Engineer F. V. Foster of Smithers prevented the train from crashing into the precipitous Bulkley Canyon with possible heavy loss of life. The engineer noticed the open switch as it rounded a bend and managed to stop the train.

Sutherland pleaded guilty and Isaac not guilty. L. W. Patmore of Prince Rupert acted as crown counsel and H. H. Griffin of Smithers appeared for the two accused.

REVOLUTION IN NORTHERN CHINA CAUSING TROUBLE

LONDON, Oct. 29:—Word received here from China indicates a widespread argarian revolution in Northern China against the Nanking government. Farmers who have been very heavily taxed to pay for the putting down of Communist revolts in the west have at last risen up and are marching on the cities. Several clashes have already taken place and it is feared the revolt may spread and prove troublesome. It is suggested that behind the move is a scheme to form a separate government for North China.

FRAUD IS ALLEGED

Ketchikan Couple Charged With Selling Foreign Made Curios As Being Alaska Product

KETCHIKAN, October 29:—Charged with violation of merchandising laws of the nation through obliterating trade marks on curios and selling them as Alaskan-produced, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hall, proprietors of Hall's Trading Post, were yesterday bound over by Judge Austin in United States commissioner's court for trial in higher court, bail of $1500 each being allowed.

In one case the complaint asserts that trade marks on a miniature carved ivory dog were obliterated and that the article was offered as an ivory curio with its origin indicated as Alaskan. The original markings designated Japan as the country of origin and the piece is made of "pressed rice or bone," according to the complaint.

In a second complaint marks designating India as the country of origin of a turquoise bracelet were removed.

In the absence of W. C. Stuhp, local assistant district attorney, the prosecution is being handled by Walter King, local attorney. H. G. McCain is attorney for the defense.
