HELENA BADLY SHAKEN ONCE MORE

Destruction of Capital City of Montana Nearly Completed on Thursday

Two Men Killed and Half a Score of Persons Seriously Injured—Population Terror-Stricken as Great Buildings Collapse and Four Hundred Residences Are Demolished—East Also Has Tremor

HELENA, Montana, Nov. 1:—Shortly before noon yesterday this city was visited by another violent earthquake shock which was even more severe than that of October 18 and which rendered more complete the destruction and desolation caused by the previous disturbance. Two men, Vincent Kennedy and Ed. O'Brien, were killed when they were buried under an avalanche of bricks from the collapse of a brewery chimney which they were engaged in repairing.

SALTRY OPERATOR AT RIVERS INLET FINED; POSSESSED NO LICENCE

VICTORIA, Nov. 1: (CP)—A Japanese dry saltery operator at Moses Inlet off Rivers Inlet was fined $500 and costs, with option of six months' imprisonment, for operating without a licence as the government began a drive to put the industry on a stabilized basis by market control.

FERGUSON RESIGNS AND MASSEY IS NAMED NEW LONDON COMMISSIONER

OTTAWA, Nov. 1: (CP)—The resignation of G. Howard Ferguson as Canadian High Commissioner to the United Kingdom at London was accepted by the government yesterday and it was announced that he would be succeeded by Hon. Vincent Massey, former minister to Washington, effective November 8.

COLD WAVE CONTINUES

No Amelioration in Early Winter—Pacific Northwest Suffers

SEATTLE, Nov. 1:—Snow and bitter cold continued throughout the Northwest and Middle West yesterday with an icy gale lashing the Washington and Oregon coast and extending as far south as California. In the mountains ice and snow sheathed the roads and in some parts of Oregon there was now to a depth of eighteen inches. Heavy damage has been done to apple crops in the Okanagan.

From the prairie states come reports of zero weather and snow blizzards in the earliest cold snap that has been known for years.

British Naval Concentration Based on Italian Moves Near Egypt

British refusal to remove its concentration of ships from the Mediterranean is said to be based on the large reinforcements of Italian troops in Libya, on the Egyptian border. The above photos and map show British and Italian troop concentration in Africa, also British ships guarding Port Said and Alexandria harbors. Britain is reported to have sent more troops to the Libyan border.

Intensely Hot Weather Favours Ethiopians — Rome Claims Advance in North With Makale Captured.

ADDIS ABABA, Nov. 1:—Italy's big push into Ethiopia with a view to closing on the capital city was definitely faltering yesterday. Indications were that the offensive of the invaders was collapsing. Reports here were to the effect that the Ethiopians had made definite advances, particularly on the southern front, inflicting heavy casualties on the confused Italians as they abandoned their stands to retreat in the direction of Italian Somaliland. The Abyssinians were ambushing the Italians with marked success, the surprised invaders being unable to effectively meet their style of guerrilla warfare.

Italy is Ready to Sue For Peace; Suggests Exchange Of Port For Interior Land

GENEVA, Nov. 1: (CP)—Italy returned to the League of Nations battlefront today willing, according to a spokesman, to quit the battlefronts of Ethiopia on conditions acceptable to the Fascist nation.

"That means military security in Ethiopian provinces bordering on our colonies and actual territory so desperately needed for the expansion of our people," said the spokesman. "Ethiopia would cede part of Ogaden Province to Italy and would receive in return a port on the Red Sea."

Nome Steamer In With Much Gold

SEATTLE, Nov. 1:—The Alaska Steamship Co.'s steamer Victoria docked here yesterday from her final voyage of the season to Nome. She brought in $525,000 of gold.

fare. Intensely hot weather, as high as 116 above being recorded, was proving hard on the Italians.

On the northern front, however, the Italians claimed to have made advances but, if so, they were of minor importance. An unofficial announcement said the Italians had captured Makale, one of the major objectives on the northern front at dawn today.

PIUS BACKS MUSSOLINI

Control by Rome, He Claims, Only Means of Avoiding More Serious Conflagration.

Geneva Amazed

Arrangements For Imposition of Penalties Being Completed—Britain Unchanged.

ROME, Nov. 1:—Pope Pius came out flatly last night as being in favor of an Italian mandate over Ethiopia as the only means of avoiding a "more serious conflagration." Imposition of sanctions by League nations against Italy would make no difference to the Roman Catholic Church, the Pontiff added, and would have no effect on the relations of the Vatican with other Catholic countries.

It was intimated in government quarters that Italy was still open to negotiate a settlement of the East African conflict but that it would not yield with less than a mandate. In a typical fighting address last night before a Fascist assemblage, Premier Mussolini declared that
