Fishermen's Harbor at Seven-Mile Point Again Asked—May Restrict Herring Fishing—Hunting Parties Had Good Week-End.

John F. Murray of Jap Inlet, Porcher Island, renews, on behalf of North Island salmon fishermen, the request for the making of a harbor at Wiah (Seven Mile) Point, Graham Island, for the benefit of the trollers and to provide many fishermen in that vicinity with protection from frequent westerly storms. This might well be included by the new federal government in any public works program, Mr. Murray believes.

The Union Oil Co.'s tank scow, which was stationed at North Island during the past summer, has been moved to Winter Harbor on the West Coast of Vancouver Island where it will remain until next spring when it will be brought back to North Island.

The Department of Fisheries announces its intention of reserving Jap Inlet and Butler Cove in this district for herring fishing for halibut bait and food purposes only. It is contended that at these two points conditions are particularly suitable for the distribution of live herring for bait to the halibut fleet owing to their position, particularly as regards the requirements of the small Canadian halibut fleet. This would, of course, eliminate herring fishing at these points for purposes of reduction.

With a fair sized list of passengers, Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findlay, arrived in port at 7:30 Sunday night and sailed a couple of hours later for Stewart, Anyox and other northern points whence she returned here this afternoon and sailed at 2 p.m. for Vancouver and waypoints.

"TOOK ALL KINDS OF PILLS, THEN CEREAL BROUGHT RELIEF"

Constipation, Due to Insufficient "Bulk," Relieved by Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

A fine letter from Mrs. Snyder: "I have had trouble with my bowels for years, taking all kinds of pills and drugs, with no relief."

"One year ago, I saw Kellogg's ALL-BRAN and bought a package. I have good movements every day. I am 73 years old. I am telling my friends what brand has done for me."

—Mrs. Sallie Snyder. Address upon request.

"Constipation due to insufficient 'bulk' in meals."

Research shows that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN furnishes "bulk" to exercise the intestines. ALL-BRAN also supplies vitamin B, as well as iron, an element of the blood.

Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient to correct common constipation. With each meal, in serious cases. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN resists digestion better than the "bulk" in leafy vegetables. How much better to use this food in place of patent medicines.

At all grocers in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

Keep on the Sunny Side of Life

Co. service who was formerly chief of the steamer Venture and more recently has been aboard "Lady" boats on lower coast runs, is at present aboard the steamer Catala, relieving the regular chief, Andrew Beattie, who is taking a two weeks' vacation.

Eight geese and 150 mallards comprised the bag of a large hunting party consisting of J. H. Pillsbury, Dr. C. H. Bastin, C. H. Orme, J. A. Lindsay, W. O. Fulton, A. R. Nichols, J. A. Hinton, F. N. Good, W. M. Blackstock, Capt. J. R. Elfert, F. A. MacCallum, G. A. Bryant and Capt. W. P. Armour which made a holiday week-end hunting trip to Hartley Bay, Kildala Arm and Giltoyes. The trip was made on the Armour Salvage Co.'s service boat Algie, leaving Friday night and returning early this morning. Most of the game was taken at Hartley Bay. There was an eight-inch snowfall on Sunday.

Another week-end hunting party was that of Dr. H. L. Alexander, Joe Scott and C. W. Dawson who visited Kwinlmaas. They got a goose and a fair bag of ducks. An exceptionally heavy snowfall on Sunday was also reported by this party.

Imperial Oil Co.'s tanker Albertolite, Capt. A. Mosher, arrived in port early Sunday morning from Ioco and, after discharging fuel oil for the company's local tanks, sailed that evening for San Pedro. Capt. Larry Thomson, who came north as pilot of the vessel, sailed by the Catala this afternoon on his return to Vancouver.

COMRADES REUNITED

Local Canadian Legion Has Annual Armistice Day Banquet

Oldtime comradeship was renewed at last night's Armistice Day banquet when the local branch of the Canadian Legion held one of its most successful reunions on the occasion of the seventeenth anniversary of the end of the Great War.

Congratulations were extended to the various organizations who had made the parade one of the finest ever held in the city. The smart appearance and drill of the naval and military units, the numbers of the Legion itself and the Women's Auxiliary, the splendid turn-out of all the other organizations and the full support of the citizens were all a matter of great credit to the city and a real tribute to the glorious dead. The guardians of the stone in their steadfastness were symbolic of the silent service of the fallen and a challenge to the present and future generations to commemorate the sacrifices made by those who were the victims of the war.

President Jack Preece reminded the large assembly of the need of the old spirit of sharing each others' troubles and made an appeal for the fullest co-operation of all in making the lot of the needy returned men and their dependents easier. Notable addresses were given by Bishop E. M. Bunoz, Col. J. W. Nicholls and Dean Gibson. J. S. Wilson brought the congratulations of the Provincial Command to the local branch of the fine work for the returned men and the city.

Olof Hanson M.P. also congratulated the branch on the fine work done quietly but so effectively in the community. Other speakers were Lieut. Commander W. Hume for the Navy, S. D. Macdonald for the Trades and Labor Council and Major C. V. Evtit who had charge of the arrangements for the Cenotaph service. A letter of regret at his inability to be present was received from T. W. Hall, inspector of schools. Mr. Hall's address of some years ago still remains in the memories of the returned men as one of the finest talks ever given before them. Col. S. D. Johnston spoke for the Regiment very effectively.

The banquet served was an outstanding attraction. Other items of the program were as follows:

"O Canada."
Opening ritual by First Vice-President W. M. Brown.
"Last Post," W. J. Rance.
Two Minutes' Silence.
Reveille, Comrade W. J. Rance.
Grace, Bishop Bunoz.
