To Our Many Friends and Customers

It is our pleasure to extend to you the season's greetings.
While we highly value your patronage, we value still more the cordial relations that have extended between us for so many years, and trust they may continue.

Wishing You
A MERRY CHRISTMAS
and
A Happy and Prosperous
NEW YEAR

COLD SNAP IS NEEDED

Pole Camps May Have to Close If Output Cannot be Hauled

Unless there is an early arrival of cold weather in the interior, pole camps of the Hanson Timber & Lumber Co. in the Hazelton district may have to close down, it was stated yesterday by Olof Hanson M.P. Men have been cutting poles in the bush for the past three months but, unless the ground freezes, it will not be possible to take them out. Cold weather of the winter is depended upon to get the poles out.

Four years ago and once before that the winter was so mild that the poles could not be taken out over the frozen ground.

There is still hope, of course, that a cold snap may come in January and thus permit of getting the timber out.

BACK AT ALAMEDA

China Clipper Quits Honolulu Hop After Getting 700 Miles Out—Sister Ship at Midway

MIDWAY ISLAND, Dec. 24:—The Pan American Airways giant flying boat Phillipine Clipper, on its way back to California following its maiden trans-Pacific flight, landed here early today from Wake Island and, after a brief stay, will continue to Honolulu enroute to Alameda.

Back In Alameda

ALAMEDA, Dec. 24:—The Pan American Airways flying boat China Clipper was back in Alameda last night, having turned back on account of stormy weather after getting seven hundred miles out on her second trans-Pacific air mail flight to Manila. She was still awaiting more favorable weather this morning before making a new start for Honolulu.

Appointment Of New Chief

It will be several days, it is expected, before an official announcement is made as to the new chief of Prince Rupert district of the provincial police following the death of Staff Sergeant R. W. Bowen of Smithers who was to have succeeded Staff Sergeant Alex McNeill but whose final illness prevented him from assuming the post.

OUTSTANDING DRAMA HERE

"China Seas," Special Christmas Offering at Capitol Theatre, Is Spectacular Thriller

One of the greatest adventure dramas of the year, "China Seas," comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here as the Christmas and Boxing Day feature with special matinees on both days.

With a great array of stars in the cast, including Clark Gable, Jean Harlow, Wallace Beery, Lewis Stone, Rosalind Russell, Dudley Digges, C. Aubrey Smith and others, "China Seas" is a red-blooded drama of fierce loves, bitter hates and deadly intrigues played on the plunging deck of a wheezy old liner beset by screaming typhoons and bloodthirsty Malay pirates off the wild southeast coast of Asia. It presents the three principal stars in types of roles which made them famous—Gable as the hard-bitten young skipper of a passenger steamer on the most dangerous run in the world; Miss Harlow as a wise-cracking, tender-hearted lady of the ports of the Orient deeply in love with Gable and not afraid to show it and Beery as a genial Irish trader whose gruff affability masks his operations as the sinister "brains" of half wild pirate bands.

The locale is the last frontier of the oceans, the only place on earth where pirates still rove the seas.

The story recalls the recent newspaper headlines telling of pirate raids on modern pleasure vessels, such a raid and typhoon being among the thrills.

Carol Service In Cathedral

Choir Rendered Special Christmas Music Most Acceptably

There was a special Christmas carol service Sunday night in St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral following the regular evening prayer service. The service was conducted by Very Rev. James B. Gibson, dean of the Cathedral, and the choir was under the direction of A. J. Lancaster with Peter Lien as organist. The program, splendidly rendered, included the anthems "Arise Shine for Thy Light is Come," "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks By Night" and "The Cherubim Song" (Russian) and the carols "Holy Night," "Hark, What Mean Those Holy Voices," "See Amid the Winter Snows" and "Good Christian Men, Rejoice."

Crowded House At Food Matinee

Capitol Theatre Packed and Salvation Army Gets Many Donations

The Capitol Theatre was packed with a capacity audience of seven hundred children and a few adults yesterday afternoon for the food matinee in aid of the Salvation Army's Christmas Cheer Fund. Admission was in the form of canned food donations and, while in future more actual food and less canned milk might be acceptable, nevertheless everything was appreciated. The donations were received by Adjutant Eva Laycock and her assistants. At the opening of the moving picture entertainment, the "little commandant" expressed appreciation for the donations and acknowledged the generosity of the theatre and its management in making the event possible.

WINNER OF RIFLE

George W. Johnstone was the holder of the lucky ticket, No. 625, in the drawing for a 22-calibre rifle which was conducted at the Canadian Legion rooms on Sunday night.

CHARGE DISMISSED

A charge against James Anslow of theft from the person of J. M. Dunn of $15 was dismissed by Magistrate McClymont in city police court yesterday afternoon. Milton Gonzales acted as defence counsel.

Congress Recesses Out of Respect To Senator's Memory

WASHINGTON, D.C., Dec. 24:—Out of respect to the memory of the late blind Senator Thomas D. Schall of Minnesota who died from injuries sustained when he was struck down by a motor car while crossing a street here, both House of Representatives and Senate declared a recess yesterday.

From Minneapolis came word that Governor Floyd G. Olsen of Minnesota intended to make the early appointment of a successor to Schall.

GREETINGS!

The confidence of our customers and friends in us is not the labor of a day, but has taken twenty-five years of constant, unceasing effort. Whatever success we have had is due to the constancy of our customers and friends.

To them we owe everything; without them, we wouldn't be here. We have an ideal to live up to and a reputation to hold which our ever-increasing list of patrons realize. May we take this opportunity, then, to extend to them our most sincere wishes for a—
