Write for two valuable free booklets — "100 Glorified Recipes" and "Contented Babies." Address Carnation Company Ltd., Vancouver.

THINK what it means to be able to add to the family diet the precious "sunshine" vitamin D through the milk you use. It's the vitamin that babies must have to make little bones grow straight and strong, and to help little teeth come in sound and fine. The famous Dionne quintuplets are being raised on Irradiated Carnation Milk. They have been fed Carnation Milk since November, 1934.

It's needed by every growing child, and by every prospective or nursing mother. In fact, every member of the family is better off for the daily fortifying with vitamin D that's so easy and inexpensive when Improved Irradiated Carnation Milk is used. No increase in price.

Many specialists recommend Carnation as an ideal milk for bottle-fed infants, because they know it is safe, nourishing, easier to digest than cow's milk in any other form. Why not ask your doctor?

The Improved Carnation Milk is also splendid for cooking, drinking, and for creaming coffee and cereals. Ask your grocer for Improved Carnation Milk. Look for the word "Irradiated" on the label.

GREAT PLAY IN PICTURE

"Les Miserables." With Splendid Acting and Magnificent Settings. Offered at Capitol

All the powerful drama of Victor Hugo's great classic, the thrilling and dramatic story of a hunted man, is said to be amply retained in the picturization of "Les Miserables," which comes to the Capitol Theatre here for a three-day engagement commencing today.

Fredrick March is at his best as the hero, Jean Valjean, the fresh, honest country youth, who stole a loaf of bread because he was starving and for this crime was brutalized for five years in the gauleys of a French prison ship and found his whole life relentlessly shadowed by the law.

As the fanatical detective, Javert, who hounds him from pillar to post, Charles Laughton offers an entirely new and great characterization. Sir Cedric Hardwicke, distinguished English stage and screen star, is brilliant as the beneficent Bishop Bienvenu.

Released from the prison ship, an unfeeling beast, Valjean is inspired to a noble and prosperous life by Bishop Bienvenu but, because he has broken his parole, he remains a hunted man always, thanks to the sinister Javert.

The love interest is provided by Rochelle Hudson and John Beal, others having important parts being Frances Drake, Florence Eldridge (Mrs. Fredrick March), Ferdinand Gottschalk, Jessie Ralph and Marilyne Knowlden.

Settings and costumes are magnificent and it is declared to be a really great picture.

I am Jean Valjean!

Doomed to a ceaseless flight from a fiend who knows no pity! Why won't he let me alone? Why does he deny me love, peace... the right to salvage my bitter heart? What have I done!

For me there is only the law! My heart is closed to pleas for justice! What is justice! It is not my duty to let emotion rule my decisions. I am Javert!
