A GREAT VICTORY

Yesterday's election was a great victory for the Liberal John M. Wright, Doncaster ATLANT ATLANT ARTHUR ART Party. No matter how it is explained, it remains a great Rovers soccer player, injured in a victory. It means that the Liberals will be fully justified motor accident recently, was marin carrying out vigorous Liberal policies such as readjust- ried at Christ Church. He was ing the tariff and settling the unemployment question, stretcher. encouraging trade and commerce and broadening the Canadian Constitution.

In Skeena constituency it was also a great victory and for next season has been made by Olof Hanson will go to Ottawa representing one of the Worcestershire County Cricke few Liberal seats in this province and with the experience lished and George Platt, former of the past five years behind him should be able to give surrey bowler, has been appointed great service to the riding. He will, we hope, have the as coach. solid backing of the people of Prince Rupert and all sections of the constituency.

In a brief address given in the committee rooms last reserve strength than at any time night Mr. Hanson made it clear that he would go to Ot- in history. A survey disclosed that in East Kootenay had been "pulled tawa representing, not only the Liberal party but all the the candidates are at least "four off" and Hon. R. Randolph Bruce people of Skeena constituency no matter to what party deep" in all positions and five an they might belong. He would be there to serve them all to the best of his ability.

A CLEAN FIGHT .

We are glad to know that the contest has been a clean one. There has been no indulging in personalities by any with Ireland in Dublin December 3 of the candidates. All can feel happy in the thought that they can meet their opponents today with heads held high and a clear conscience. The people have expressed them- ine 100 miles each day for a year selves clearly and their will must be carried out.

PSYCHOLOGY OF ELECTIONS

It is curious how in the excitement of the hour people next 12 months so far he has are carried away and unable to give a sound judgment in regard to public opinion. Take this election as an ex- period competed at the Melbourne ample. Many Conservatives really believed that their can- City Baths. didate would be elected and many C. C. F. supporters were just as confident that Mr. Panter would be the member for Skeena. How they arrived at this conclusion no Jackie Coogan one can say. They could not have canvassed the situation well. The wish was father to the thought and all evidence to the contrary was discarded. Estimates must never be based on past experience because many people change their opinions, very quickly.

Nothing but election frenzy could have justified some birthday on October 21 when he of the published statements about a Liberal rout and the will come into possession of an come-back of Bennett that appeared in some newspapers estate of $1,000,000. a day or two before election day.

NO HINDRANCE LOCALLY

Now that the election is over, we are able to turn our attention to advancing the interests of Prince Rupert in a material way. We are glad to know that the people have expressed themselves as opposed to any policy of confiscation of industries. The number of socialist candidates elected is very few, so few that they can have very little influence on the life of the country. Vancouver and Winnipeg were shown to be the socialist hotbeds and the only ones in Canada. Not a C. C. F. member was elected east of Winnipeg and in Alberta the party was practically wiped out of existence by the social credit party.
