WHAT WILL MR. KING DO?

When Prime Minister Bennett retires and is succeeded catch of the game and is playing ine-ups as follows: by Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, it would be a matter good ball in the centre garden for of ordinary courtesy for Mr. King to recommend to the the Sons. King that Mr. Bennett be given a title. But Mr. King does not believe in the granting of titles and has expressed! himself as opposed to the Bennett relapse into the old system. Evidently he will have to lay himself open to a charge of discourtesy to a worthy opponent or he will have to go back on his word to the Canadian people. The only hope of the present Prime Minister getting a title seems to lie in his retiring before the election takes place and allowing his Conservative successor to nominate him or to wait until after the election, then retire to England and possibly receive a title on the recommendation of the British prime minister. Should Hon. H. H. Stevens be his successor in Canada he could hardly expect a recommendation from him.

Evidently if Mr. Bennett wants a title it is up to Mr. Mackenzie King to make an exception in this case and to advise His Majesty that the last Canadian title should go to Richard Bedford Bennett but that, hereafter, the Canadian people are opposed to the granting of artificial distinctions of this kind.
