CHAMBERLAIN SPEAKS ABOUT CRISIS

Stabilization is Now Unthinkable Declares Exchequer Chancellor

Italian Consulates in Ethiopia Are Being Evacuated—
Germany Determined to Maintain Neutrality In Event of Conflict

LONDON, Oct. 1: (CP)—In view of the present tense condition of international affairs in Europe, even the most tentative approach to stabilization is quite unthinkable, Rt. Hon. Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, declared today. In official quarters, there is still considerable concern felt over the possibility of an outbreak as a result of the Italo-Ethiopian crisis.

CONSPIRACY IS ALLEGED

Witnesses Give Evidence In Support Of Mooney's Contention Of Being Railroaded To Conviction

SAN FRANCISCO, October 1:—Further witnesses were heard in the State Supreme court of California in substantiation of Tom Mooney's claim that he was railroaded to conviction as a result of conspiracy following the killings in the 1916 Preparedness Day bombing here. Witnesses declared that there had been offers of bribery for giving evidence against Mooney who is now seeking liberty on habeas corpus proceedings from a sentence of life imprisonment. If the habeas corpus should be granted, both Mooney and Warren K. Billings, who was convicted in the same connection, would be released.

MANY ARE IN FIELD

Four Candidates Per Seat Are Nominated For Federal Election—To Be Biggest List in History

Grits Have Most

Aspirants For Seventy-Six Ridings Line Up—Remainder Next Monday

OTTAWA, Oct. 1: (CP)—Two hundred and ninety-three candidates were nominated in seventy-six seats in official nominations Monday for the forthcoming federal election, indicating that close to nine hundred will be named after the rest of the country has nominated next Monday, making the greatest free-for-all struggle in Canadian history.

The Liberals nominated candidates in every one of the seventy-six seats, the Conservatives in sixty-nine, the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation in fifty-six, Social Credit in thirty-five, the Reconstruction party in thirty-seven and the Communists in four while sixteen candidates represented other groups.

Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, has Conservative, C. C. F. and Social Credit opposition. Nominations in Calgary West, where Premier R. B. Bennett runs, will not close until next Monday.

There are thirty-one candidates under seven designations in eight British Columbia seats which nominated yesterday. The Conservatives remained out of Kootenay East where Hon. H. H. Stevens, Reconstruction Party leader, and R. Randolph Bruce, former Lieutenant Governor, are candidates as well as B. C. Iverson, C. C. F., and E. W. Sjodin, only Social Credit candidate in British Columbia.

HIGH COURT DISMISSES CELONA APPEAL

Reconstruction Party Leader's Family

Copyright, 1935, by National Press, Toronto.

Though in the limelight for many years, Hon. H. H. Stevens, leader of the new Reconstruction party, has never publicized his family. Mrs. Stevens and her two sons and three daughters were virtually unknown to Canadians. Today, because of the widespread interest aroused since Stevens assumed the leadership of a fourth major party, they could no longer remain in the background. The above layout, the first ever published, shows Top (left to right) Douglas Carlyle Stevens, 19, a student at Queen's University, Kingston, and Rev. Francis H. Stevens, 28, pastor of the Britannia Beach, B.C. United Church, and now leader of the Stevens Youth Movement. Centre, Hon. H. H. Stevens and Mrs. Stevens. Bottom, Mrs. James E. Lovick, 27, of Vancouver, whose husband is taking a leading organization part in that city, and Miss Patricia Ireen Stevens, 22, youngest daughter, who is now assisting at Ottawa party headquarters. A third daughter, Sylvia Mary, died some time ago.

THE POLITICAL CORNER

WHY SEND PANTER TO OTTAWA?

Mr. Woodsworth, leader of the C. C. F. party, says that he has no desire at this time to form a government and is not putting sufficient candidates in the field to control the House even if they were all elected.

In other words, he wishes to form a group in the House to criticize, harry, and pursue obstructionist tactics against whatever government may come into power.

This is precisely what the C. C. F. has been doing at Victoria in the Provincial Legislature, and with what results?

The young Mr. Winch answered the question when speaking here some time ago. He said, "We have not been able to accomplish anything yet to speak of in Victoria."

And this is precisely what is going to happen if Mr. Panther is sent to Ottawa.

He will not accomplish anything to speak of. And how could he be expected to?

If we elect an opponent of the government how can we hope for any favors for this constituency? Too long we have had a member sitting in the Opposition. It is time now to send a government supporter to Ottawa who can do something for this riding.

It is all right for idealists to say that we should not send members to Ottawa for what they can do for their constituency, but this idealism is a poor substitute for a decent chance to make an honest living which comes with increased prosperity.
