COLDS

Two generations of mothers have proved Vicks VapoRub the safe, dependable way to treat colds. Just rubbed on throat and chest, Vapo-Rub fights a cold direct - two ways

Through the skin it acts direct like a poultice or plaster. At the same time, its medicated vapors are inhaled with every breath direct to the inflamed air-passages of head, throat and bronchial tubes.

This combined action loosens phlegm-soothes irritated membranes - eases difficult breathing helps break congestion.

AVOIDS "DOSING"

With VapoRub, you avoid the risks of constant internal dosing - which so often upsets children's delicate digestions and lowers resistance when most needed. VapoRub can be used freely, and as often as needed, even on the youngest child.

"Madame DuBarry" Presented With "I Sell Everything" at the Capitol Theatre

"Madame Du Barry," concerning itself with the intimate life and loves of the famous French court beauty who was the favorite of Louis XV, and "I Sell Everything," a novel comedy drama, are the features of a double picture bill being offered at the Capitol Theatre here at the first of this week.

In this picture, Madame Du Barry, he little milliner's apprentice whose many love affairs and madcap pranks were the scandal of the Continent, is pictured not so much as the astute and scheming politiian of history as a woman filled! with the joy of living, gay, capricious and irresistible. Magnificent settings are provided for the highly amusing action. Novel and beautiful dances have been created especially for the picture. Dolores Del Rio has the part of Du Barry while Reginald Owen plays opposite her as Louis XV. Anita Louise, Maynard Holmes, Victor Jory .Veree Teasdale and other notables depict famous characters in history of the

While the story of "I Sell Anything" is largely comedy, there is an underlying romance with Pat O'Brien, Ann Dvorak and Claire Dodd heading an excellent cast. The story deals with the manufacture and sale of fake anitiques.
