SPORT CHAT

The sport of bowling is showing a distinct revival in Prince Rupert. The recently-established new alleys at the Elks' Home have proven popular and tonight another new resort will be opened in the basement of the Exchange Block. Times have changed since the good old days when they used to run bowling alleys in connection with the pool 2 halls and it was regarded entirely as a man's game. Now the ladies take an active part as may be seen from the success of the Ladies' League which is being operated at the Elks' Home.

In connection with the opening of the new Exchaneg Block alleys tonight, a team representing the Knox Hotel has issued a challenge to play any other five-man team in town for a turkey dinner.

Line-ups for tonight's Ladies' nounced as follows: Mussallem's vs. pertettes vs. Strikers; Boston Reds

Boston Bruins blanked the New York Americans at Boston Tuesday night to move back into the leadership of the American Division of the National Hockey League with a margin of a single point over the open night. The Rangers, playing in New York, downed the Toronto gagement and, as a result, moved into a tie with the idle Detroit Red game scheduled for Tuesday night.
