FIRST CLASS SHOE REPAIRING. SEE SIMPSON, FIFTH AND MCBRIDE. (tf)

Olof Hanson Jr., after having spent the summer at New Hazelton, arrived in the city from the interior on Tuesday night's train to visit here for a time before proceeding to Montreal to resume his studies at McGill University.

Game Warden Ed. Martin was an interesting speaker today at the regular weekly luncheon of the Prince Rupert Rotary Club in the Commodore Cafe. Lee Gordon presided and there was a good attendance of members.

Orville F. Densted of the scientific staff of the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station sailed by the Princess Louise yesterday afternoon for Vancouver enroute to Montreal where he will resume his studies at McGill University. He expects to return to the city permanently next spring.

W. E. Walker, manager of Arrandale cannery, returned to the Naas River yesterday after a brief business visit to town. He came in Tuesday evening on the Catala, accompanying Mrs. Walker and family who were returning to Vancouver aboard that vessel after having spent the summer at Arrandale.

Rupert Ross, who has been employed at Haysport during the salmon canning season, sailed yesterday afternoon on the Princess Louise for Vancouver near which city he will pay a visit with his grandparents before returning to his studies at the University of British Columbia. He is in his fourth year of chemical engineering.

James Archibald Thompson of Prince Rupert has been honored by the board of publication of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" as an outstanding student of the University of British Columbia. Students for this honor are selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, service, extra-curricula activities and characteristics pointing towards future usefulness to society and to the business world.

Be warm and comfortable by riding in $2 Taxi—it costs the same.

You can rent a car at Walker's as low as $1.50 a day, plus 7c. a mile.

Mrs. Arthur Brooksbank, who has been on a ten-weeks' trip to Seattle and Yakima, will be returning home from the south on the Prince George tomorrow morning.

Corp. E. H. Clarke R.C.M.P. sailed yesterday afternoon on the Princess Louise for Vancouver enroute to Regina where he will take a course of instruction.

Miss Helen McCaffery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. McCaffery, has received the appointment as school teacher at Hubert in the Bulkley Valley and will be leaving at the end of the week for the interior to assume her duties.

Eugene O'Brien, former well known screen star from Hollywood, and his brother, Dr. G. G. O'Brien of Chicago, were passengers aboard the Princess Louise yesterday afternoon returning south after a visit to Juneau.

Capt. and Mrs. E. E. Craig and son and daughter of Hindhead, Surrey, England, disembarked from the steamer Princess Louise yesterday afternoon after having made the trip north from Vancouver to Skagway and proceeded by train to pay a visit to Jasper Park before continuing East enroute home.

Mrs. Buckley Shannon and family arrived in the city on Tuesday night's train after spending the summer at Usk, where Mr. Shannon is now located in connection with his mining interests, and sailed yesterday afternoon on the ss. Princess Louise for their home in Vancouver.

George Little, after a two-day business visit to town left by last evening's train on his return to Terrace, accompanied by his daughter, Edith. Mr. Little reports mining activity steadily growing in importance around Terrace with a number of promising properties commanding the attention of outside interests.

Jeff Lambly, formerly of this city and now ranching near Terrace, returned to the interior on last evening's train after a brief business visit to town, having arrived Tuesday night. Located at Terrace now for about a year, Mr. Lambly is still highly enthusiastic over prospects there but states that he is badly in need of about a quarter of a mile of road to his land near Braun's Island in the Kitsumkulum area.

Strict enforcement of the curfew law is to be observed henceforth by the city police, it was stated today. First, a child found on the streets unattended after curfew will be taken home. If the same child is permitted out again, the parents will be prosecuted.

NORTHLAND GAME HUNT

specimens of wood buffalo now becoming extinct.

After 10 days in the barrens, the party will proceed to Great Bear Lake where grizzly will be shot. Flying north of Fort Simpson the rare black-tailed sheep will be sought. Returning by the Liard river, through northern British Columbia, elk will be the prize of the flying hunters and scientists. The party will return to Edmonton late in September after covering territory which normally takes three years to traverse by overland methods.

This is Mr. Snyder's 32nd expedition into the northwest for big game. He has been leading parties out of here since 1901.

R. E. Outerbridge, who has been located at Port Simpson during the summer as a medical student at the hospital, left by last evening's train on his return to Toronto.

Milton Gonzales, who arrived in the city recently from Vancouver to re-engage in law practice here, expects to be joined in about a month by Mrs. Gonzales. They were married recently in Vancouver.
