THE STATUS OF CANADA

The Native Sons of Canada, with headquarters in Toronto, have just issued a booklet entitled "A Catechism on Canadian Status" which endeavors to prove that Canada is not a part of the British Empire, that there is no such thing as a Commonwealth of Nations, that Canada is wholly and completely an independent nation, that Canada is not necessarily at war if Great Britain is at war, that Canada should withdraw from the League of Nations, that Canada owes nothing to Great Britain but on the contrary the debt is on the other side.

It is curious that this little publication should be issued at a time when there seems to be in Canada a tendency for the nationalized citizens to pay particular attention to their former nationality. In Prince Rupert the Scandinavians are showing much greater national activity than ever they have shown before, not a disagreeable activity but one that recognizes the nationality of their forefathers in a marked degree. The Japanese are putting forward their nation and showing pride in their Oriental status. Italians are advocating the scheme of government carried out in their country and extolling the virtues of Mussolini. Germans are going Hitlerite. Czecho-Slovakians are showing pride in the land of their birth and other nationalities represented in this country are also showing similar tendencies.

In view of the tendency of the time we do not like the propagation of views which tend to break down the ties of the past. We want a real Canadianism but there is nothing to be gained by trying to read ourselves out of the British Empire. We call it "Empire" for want of a better word. The expression "Commonwealth of Nations" is cumbersome and just as incorrect. It is better to acknowledge that the word "Empire" has taken on a new meaning and continue to use it. In any event we cannot cut away from all old associations until the nationalized citizens have passed on and given place to the new generation of Canadian born who in a few years will dominate Canadian life.

PLAY FINE HOOP GAME

Moose Senior Team Defeats Ketchikan Owls by Score of 43 to 37 Saturday Evening

The Ketchikan Owls basketball team, playing on a strange floor after having been on a boat for three days, lost to the local Moose cagers 43-33 Saturday night in one of the best hoop games that has ever been put on by any visiting quintet here. It was featured with clean play, good shooting and fine passing and defence work. The visitors used five men up and five men back at various times. Another thing that was new to the local fans was the playing of the game in four 10-minute quarters.

One could not pick any individual star for the visitors as they all turned in a splendid performance. If Inman had not been bounced on personals the locals might have lost.

Wingham of the Moose had a big night, scoring 32 points.

The game started fast with the visitors having more than their share of the play with their guards holding the locals down to six points while they got 11 in the first quarter. On resumption of the second quarter they added eight points to their score while the locals got through with 11.

After the interval the locals tied it up at 19-all. Then the battle was on from basket to basket with the visitors staying right with the Moose up to the last five minutes of play. Wingham sank one a minute while the visitors scored none.

It was one of the cleanest displays of basketball that has ever been seen here. Referee Skinner called 13 fouls, seven on the Ketchikan five and six on the locals. The visitors will be back some time next week to play a game with the Canadian National Recreation Association.

The Canadian Legion defeated the High School 34-18 in an intermediate curtain-raiser. The Vets had things their own way right from the start. Half time was 20-10 and in the second half the Vets held the Students down to eight points while they got 14.

Individual scoring:

Intermediate Game

High School (18)—Lindsay (6), Campbell (3), Tobey, Davies, Fulton, Morgan (9), McMeekin.

Legion (34)—Armstrong (9), McPhee (15), Blake (10), Suehiro, Christisen.

Senior Game

Ketchikan Owls (33)—P. Johnny (4), W. Allen (8), Atkinson (3), L. Pawsey (2), G. Inman (6), Peterson (10), Burton, S. Burton.

Moose (43)—Pierce (4), Smith (3), Johnson (2), Wingham (32), Steffensrud (2), Arney, Vance, Menzies.
