BAD FEATURE OF ELECTION

One of the bad features of the present election campaign is the tendency in some places to interrupt the speakers and not allow them to explain the policies which they are trying to place before the electors. It is usually a sign of weakness when such tactics are found necessary.

In Vancouver Premier Hepburn of Ontario came out to give his views of the federal situation. A few people who object to any policy except their own that seems likely to prove successful interrupted to such an extent that many who went to hear Mr. Hepburn were unable to do so. Happily they were able to read a good report of his speech in the newspapers next day.

Mr. Hepburn is reputed to be one of the best and most colorful political speakers in the Dominion and it is regrettable that he could not come to Prince Rupert where we feel sure he would have been given a good hearing. Prince Rupert audiences have not been guilty of the bad taste of jeering a visitor, no matter on what errand he may have come. They usually listen carefully to all speakers and express appreciation or otherwise at the close. It is a sign of intelligence.

SOCIAL CREDIT SPREADING

Social Credit seems to be spreading. British Columbia supporters of the scheme plan to put candidates in the field in this province but we do not know whether Skeena is to be included. It also seems unlikely that the Stevens party will have a candidate here so the issues will not be as much confused as otherwise might have been the case. With only a month to go there is scarcely time for a new candidate now to cover the riding, however active he may be.

So far as can be seen today it is to be a straight three-cornered contest.

Giants Fall Back in Pennant Race As Chicago and St. Louis Cardinals Win

CHICAGO, Sept. 17: (CP)—With two games still dividing them, Chicago Cubs and St. Louis Cardinals drew away from the New York Giants in the National League pennant race yesterday. The Cubs easily took a series opener from the Giants here while the Cardinals were winning a pitchers' battle from the Brooklyn Dodgers at St. Louis. It was Paul Dean's nineteenth victory of the season which, with 26 for his brother Jerome, made the 46 promised by "Dizzy."

The Giants are now four and a half games behind the leading Cubs and two and a half games below the second place Cardinals. The Reds, by defeating the Phillies in 11 innings at Cincinnati, moved into leadership of the second division ahead of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

In the American League, the Detroit Tigers defeated the Red Sox at Boston to boost their margin of leadership to nine and a half games over the New York Giants who lost to the St. Louis Browns whose manager, Rogers Hornsby, it was announced during the day had received another year's contract with pay increase. EUCCHARIST CONGRESS

Historic Chalice Will be Used At Gathering of U. C. Catholics in Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 17: (AP)—Most Rev. Amleto G. Cicognani, apostolic delegate, will use an ornamented golden chalice, rich in artistry and religious import, in a midnight mass at the seventh national Eucharistic congress here September 23-26.

It is the chalice with which Francis de Sales (1567-1622), bishop of Geneva, celebrated the sacrifice of the mass. The sacred vessel is embossed with cherubic heads and ecclesiastical symbols. Mademoiselle Pance, first of the sisterhood known as the Ladies of the Sacred Heart to migrate to Cleveland from her native France, brought the chalice to America many years ago. It is the property of the order.

Monsignor Diego Venini, private secretary to Pope Pius XI, will bring another precious chalice to the congress, a personal gift from the pope, which will be used by members of the hierarchy at solemn pontifical masses during the three-day gathering.

Impressive Settings
The settings for the pageantry, mysticism and symbolism of Catholic ceremony will be the city's public hall and the adjoining underground exhibition hall, with a total seating capacity of nearly 30,000 together with the Lakeside stadium, with a capacity of approximately 100,000.

Hundreds of thousands are expected to participate: prelates, monsignori, missionaries, nuns and brothers, laity from every diocese in the nation—pilgrims all before the Eucharistic monstrosity enthroning the heaven wafer "now bread no longer."

One hundred and twenty altars—one for each of the dioceses under the United States flag—are under construction. These will tell chronologically the American story of Catholicity from the founding of the first diocese at San Juan, Puerto Rico, in 1511. Clergy from the respective dioceses will celebrate mass on each altar.

MOONEY IS CONFIDENT

Famous Convict Leaves San Quentin For San Francisco to Appear in Appeal Proceedings

SAN QUENTIN, Cal., Sept. 17:—Confident that he will shortly be released, America's most famous convict, Tom Mooney, was taken under heavy guard yesterday from San Quentin Penitentiary to San Francisco where habeas corpus proceedings on his behalf will commence today in State Supreme Court. Mooney will appear in person before the court, probably taking the stand in his own defense.

During the proceedings, which may take from two weeks to a month, Mooney will be lodged in the county jail in San Francisco within three blocks of Market and Stewart Streets, the scene of the killings in the Preparedness Day parade on July 22, 1916, as a result of which Mooney was convicted and sentenced to be hanged, the sentence being later commuted to life imprisonment. He has always protested his innocence but, despite numerous attempts through the courts, has never been able to secure his liberty.

This will be the first occasion on which a state court has considered Mooney's guilt or innocence in connection with the incident when six persons were killed and four others fatally injured as a result of the explosion of a time bomb.
