A few paragraphs illustrate the general idea:

"Well, I'll tell you," said the Hatter, "the very moment Harry Stevens resigned and clearly intended to smash the Conservative Party in two at the next session of Parlia-blers. ment with his radicalism-right then, on that instant, I realized that I had always been a radical at heart. I realized that I had always loathed the Big Interests."

"I only wish," said Sir Harry Stevens, the White Knight of Vancouver, "that I'd known the Hatter was radical before I quit. I rather fancied I had a copyright on that sort of thing and I thought I was going to have a rather good time at the next session. Now the Hatter has stolen the whole show. Is it fair, after all the work I've done?"

"My heart bleeds for our suffering people," murmured the Hatter, absent mindedly. "Our great destiny. Our sacred duty. Our glorious posterity. Pass the buns."

"I mean," said Sir Harry, "here I had to go and make speeches all across the country contrary to government policy while I was still in the government. I had to see that only a thousand copies of my pamphlet on Canadian busi- Lake Frozen From End to Endness were printed so that it shouldn't leak out on any account. I had to equip myself with long study and investigation to be the martyred radical of the ministry. Then to find that all the time the Hatter was secretly redder than I was! Oh, the shame and humiliation of it! Why, I never even suspected that he was faintest shade of pink."

"It was really that fellow Pattullo out in British Columbia that's to blame for all this," said the Black Knight of St. James Street. "He started it. But they're all mad west of the Rockies, of course. The Hatter stole all his ideas Mount Oldfield yesterday and had drews, Canadian Legion vs. Sons from Pattullo, and the cunning way he went about it! He a good day. used to attack every idea that Pattullo advanced, and the more he would attack the more ideas Pattullo would advance. So pretty soon the Hatter had them all. Now they are the whole Reform Program. It was practically highway robbery."

"Even the Economic Council idea comes from Pattullo," said the Dormouse.

"Well, I watched it working out in B.C.," said the Hatter, with a sly smirk, "and it didn't seem to do any harm there. It didn't seem to do anything at all. So I thought there can be no harm in having one here. That is the kind of reform that I like."

"You see," said the Hatter, referring to the maunscript of a radio address which he had just delivered, "we could not pause to make repairs to the ship during the storm and fury of the depression, but now that we are in calmer waters, now that the ship has reached safe anchorage-"

"Now that an election is just around the corner," whis-

HEALTH SELDOM COMES BY CHANCE TO PERSONS OVER THIRTY

Good health cannot be taken for granted any more than a good income can. So for persons over thirty it is just as smart and business-like to plan to enjoy good health as it is to plan to enjoy a good income. And it's just as much a matter of plain common sense to

In health, your shortcomings are, at first, likely to be those annoying, not-exactly-well feelings! At such times, if your blood were tested, it would most likely be found "low in count". This means a shortage of red corpuscles and the corpuscles themselves come up to normal health again. Neglect it and serious results

Observing, in his practice, the importance of keeping the vitality of the blood up to normal, a Canadian authority originated a bloodbuilding preparation which has been belping run-down people back to health for nearly half a century. This preparation, now known the world over as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, definitely increases the blood "count" in the majority of cases, thereby restoring vitality, steadying nerves, imparting strength and toning up the whole system. So the person over thirty who finds good health slipping, is well advised to take at least a 30-day treatment of this excellent remedy. The element of chance has been practically eliminated in such a treatment, because tests recently made by an authority in a clinic of 40 people, proved conclusively by individual blood "count" that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills certainly improve the bealth by enriching the blood.
