WILL VOTE RED

The day after the election many people spoke to the here, one in Chicago, another in editor of this paper about the election and mentioned that Brazil and three in Syria. Mr. Musthey had voted for the Liberal candidate this time but since he left his native land in 1907 that, if no relief were given by the Liberal party, they for Canada. would vote red next time. There seems to be a very general idea that the Liberal party is on trial and that they WAR CLOUDS are depended upon to make such revisions in government policy as will bring back prosperity to the nation generally and at the same time get rid of the festering sore of unemployment.

Young Children At Story Hour

Eighty-Five Between Four And Eight Years Turned Out This Morning

With 85 children present, the Elks' Home was again the scene of the Story Hour this morning for The hour opened with a song by all, following which everyone played "Tail the Donkey."

Mrs. C. W. Dawson told a story about a horse which was much enjoyed. The story of "Little Red Riding Hood" was told by Mrs. Arthur Sutton. Two casts of children acted it with suitable properties. They included Marie Boulter, Howard Melo, Peggy Large, Margaret Sutherland, David Eastman, Donald Alexander, Gwen Hogan, June Berge, David Barclay and Christina Montgomery. Mrs. Robert Cameron was pianist for the morning.

Next Saturday the Story Hour is for children nine to 12 years and will be in charge of Mrs. A. H. Waddington, Mrs. Peter Lakie, Miss Noreen Gibson and Mrs. G. P. Tin-

Distribute Extra Employment

During December many employers will require to work their employees overtime or engage extra help.

From a survey of the unemployed the Employment Service of Canada believes overtime to be unnecessary and will co-operate with employers in securing competent employees for temporary or permanent help.
