CONSIDERING THE PATIENTS

Complaint was made at the monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert General Hospital board at the end of the week of the noise of playing children around the institution disturbing the patients therein.

In justice to the children, it must be admitted that there are few enough places in Prince Rupert where they may play. Also this is school holiday time.

MR. McGEER AND MR. MANSON

The British Columbia Legislature will be the poorer through losing two members of the type of Mayor G. G. McGeer of Vancouver and A. M. Manson K.C., M. L. A. for Omineca, who are resigning to enter the broader sphere of federal politics.

We in the north will be sorry to lose Mr. Manson as a member in the central interior district of Omineca which he has served faithfully and well since 1916.

An inquiry was held as a result of which the coroner was satisfied that the fatality was due to accident. Hamer formerly lived at Port Edward and, as far as is known, was unmarried. A brother, John Hamer, is fishing at Minktrap Bay.

Detroit Tigers Seem Assured of Pennant—Tight Race in National

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Chances of the New York Yankees to capture the American League pennant faded further yesterday when they lost a double-header to the Philadelphia Athletics while the Detroit Tigers won their ninth straight victory by beating the Chicago White Sox and increased their margin of leadership to six full games.

There was little change in the three-way struggle for the National League pennant. New York Giants lost to the Phillies and Chicago Cubs defeated the St. Louis Cardinals, ending their winning streak at eight games.

SPORT CHAT

Commiserating with Prince Rupert's baseball players in their failure to annex the cup that was representative of the baseball championship of Northern and Central British Columbia, we cannot but express our admiration for the excellent sportsmanship displayed by the players in their games at Smithers during the Elks' flag-day.

But all these fine qualities had a cloud that was not as creditable to the town as the players were men of pride to that community.

Here we had a fine lot of young athletes ready to do their best to play some part in establishing the supremacy of the coast city. The mere fact that fates were against them does not matter. They played the game.

But Prince Rupert sent their players out looking like bowery tramps with their uniforms decorated with cheap advertising.

Clothes may not make the man, but in such cases they establish the spirit of a community. Those boys were ball players—darned good ones, too—and it displayed a poor sense of sportsmanship on the part of the Prince Rupert people to send them out as glorified sandwich men.

The Rupert boys would have tried no harder had they been arrayed in fine uniforms. They were boys of that kind. But it would certainly have been more complimentary to the sports spirit of that city had they sent their players out as representing that city's finest sense of sportsmanship rather than have them out on the ball field to advertise the fact that a good place to get a shot in the arm was at Gyp the Blood's or that Dick Smith sold good meat.

With their Rotary Club and their Junior Chamber of Commerce and other organizations, Prince Rupert might well spend some time in outfitting their baseball team in a manner commensurate with their great ability and in keeping with the fine sportsmanship the boys displayed.

Mining Activity At Atlin Planned

Private English Syndicate Carrying Out Work On Large Area Of Placer Leases

VICTORIA, August 12.—H. E. Hunnings, who recently retired from the brokerage business here, has returned with George Kidd from Alaska and Atlin, where they went to inspect the work they are carrying on for a private English syndicate developing a big area of placer leases.

Bruce McMicking, son of Dr. A. E. McMicking, went north with Mr. Hunnings to join the crew at the property, and will remain there for the season.

After debarking from the Alaska boat, Mr. Hunnings and party flew in from Carcross by flying boat to the placer workings. They brought out a quantity of gold on their return trip. Mr. Hunnings said the associates in England, upon the recommendation of the operating officials in the north, had decided on a considerable enlargement of the present rate of production. This will be carried out by the installation of larger equipment.

Barbara Hutton Pays Dearly To Secure Freedom

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Aug. 12.—Commenting upon reports that Prince Alexis Mdivani, her former husband, killed recently in an automobile accident in Spain, had left her a large estate the former Barbara Hutton, American heiress, told newspaper reporters yesterday that since she had secured her Reno divorce a few months ago from him, she had been paying Mdivani at the rate of £70,000 annually. Under the circumstances, she commented, it was hardly reasonable to believe that he had left her a fortune.

FRUIT FOR PRESERVING

Seasonal Lines Are Still Feature Of Local Retail Market—Apricots Late and Scarce

Seasonal fruit is still the feature of the local retail market with special interest in preserving lines. Okanagan apricots have not started to arrive in any volume as yet but preserving supplies are expected next week. This fruit is scarce this year and the season will be short. Upriver table cherries, which have been of excellent quality this year, are about finished. Sour Terrace cherries have just made their appearance and are also of good quality. Supplies are scarce and housewives desirous of putting this variety up are being advised to order without delay.
