BIG PLANE PASSES OVER: IDENTITY NOT KNOWN

A large twin-motored flying boat, headed south, passed over Prince Rupert at 9:20 this morning without stopping. It was flying low under heavy clouds. The identity of the machine was not ascertained. Some thought it might have been the Moscow-Oakland non-stop plane, which is reported to have hopped off from Moscow last night, but it is not a flying boat that the Russians are using.

From the Waterfront

Residents of the higher parts of the east end of the town from their homes early yesterday afternoon viewed the stranding of the fish packer Delphinium as she was carried on the rocks by a strong tide in Shawatlans Passage after her engine had broken down. Little, if any, damage was done to the vessel which, after the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co.'s packer W. R. Lord and N. M. McLeod's launch Wake had put out from Seal Cove to her aid, was pulled off the beach and was able to proceed under her own power. A vessel of the Armour Salvage Co. also went out to the assistance of the Delphinium which had been refloated by the time it arrived.

No boats being in with catches, there was no sale of halibut on the local fish exchange today.

Having on board a large list of passengers consisting largely of tourists returning south after having made the round trip to Alaska, C. P. R. steamer Princess Alice, Capt. Clifford Fenton, arrived in port at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the north and sailed at 5:30 p.m. for Vancouver. The vessel brought in a total of 158 passengers, two disembarking here while nine went south aboard her.

To allow the vessel extra time at Anyox to take on a large group of passengers and their effects for Vancouver now that the camp is being closed down, C. N. R. steamer Prince George, Capt. Edward Mabbs, will leave here at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon for Anyox and Stewart, two hours ahead of regular schedule. The vessel, due here tomorrow morning at 9:30 from Vancouver, Powell River and Ocean Falls, will be back southbound on Saturday evening.

Bringing north among her passengers upwards of twenty tourists who made the trip from Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands and will transfer tomorrow to the steamer Prince George to make the voyage to Anyox and Stewart and thence back to Vancouver, C. N. R. steamer Prince Charles, Capt. Dan McKinnon, arrived in port at 8:15 this morning and will be here until 10 o'clock Saturday night when she will sail on her return south over the same route.

MINISTER OF MUNICIPALITIES URGES PRINCE RUPERT NOT TO CHANGE GOV'T PLAN.

not only the pulp mill but other industries to be re-established here.

Referring briefly to the affairs of his other department of lands and forests, Mr. Gray discussed the question of selective logging. It was proposed to have discussions between experts of British Columbia, Washington and Oregon on this subject. However, no new legislation would be brought down requiring new methods of logging involving scrapping of existing machinery unless the operators themselves first approved.

The luncheon was presided over jointly by S. J. Jabour and W. M. Blackstock, respective presidents of Gyro and Rotary Clubs. Guests were, besides Mr. Gray, Robert Wilkinson M.L.A., Vancouver, John R. Morgan, Queen Charlotte Islands; Eric Jones, Victoria; M. W. MacKenzie and Dr. C. McLean Fraser, Vancouver, and D. J. Matheson, Gunnar Anderson, A. J. Prudhomme, G. W. Nickerson, M. P. McCaffery, L. W. Patmore, Allan Kergin and Arthur Brookshank, Prince Rupert. In view of this luncheon, the Rotary Club did not meet today.
