ARRIVAL OVER THE RAILWAY FROM SMITHERS

of Usk, was the scene of one of the worst washouts. The west half of the bridge and part of the approach was swept away leaving the rails and ties suspended 40 feet in the air for seventy feet.

Hardscrabble Creek, six miles west of Pacific, cut both sides of the bank, the east side 30 feet and the west side 50 feet but the steel bridge held firm. East of Pacific at Fiddler's Creek, the right-of-way, 15 feet high, was washed out for a distance of 200 feet while a little farther east a clean sweep of 300 feet of grade 10 feet high was made.

Mr. Dickson had an interesting time working and tramping his way west through the difficult country, arriving here a little after noon today.

LIBRARY MEETING

Regular Monthly Meeting Held—Official Compliments Institution

The monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert Library Board was held last night. Those present were Frank Dibb, chairman, T. B. Black, R. L. McLennan, R. E. Moore, G. A. Woodland and Miss Dorothy Rushbrook.

A letter was received from Mr. Edwards, librarian in Anyox, stating that no books were available for donations to the Prince Rupert Public Library.

A donation of several books on early New England life, offered by Miss Clara Benedict, will be accepted. A book on "Australia's Government Bank," donated by L. C. Jauncey, the author, has been added to the library shelves.

The Rosicrucian Society offered a renewal donation of the book "Lemuria" to the library. The renewal was accepted but it was specified that it was not the policy of the board to receive further books from this society as a number were already on the library shelves.

The book committee was authorized to purchase a number of new books for the free shelves. These books will be available to readers within the next two months.

Mr. Killam of the Public Library Commission, on his visit to the local library, was very favorably impressed by the progress attained under financial difficulties and by the efficiency of the staff, it was stated at the meeting.

WHIFFLETS From the Waterfront

With quite a good sized list of passengers, C. N. R. steamer Prince George, Capt. H. E. Nedden, arrived in port on time at 10 o'clock this morning from Vancouver, Powell River and Ocean Falls and will sail at 4 o'clock this afternoon for Anyox and Stewart whence she will return here tomorrow evening southbound.

Capt. Paul Armour, manager of the Armour Salvage Co., is gradually completing recovery following an illness which he contracted in Vancouver recently, having had to enter hospital while there. He was threatened with pneumonia.

T. A. Kelley Logging Co.'s service boat Norah Jane, Capt. W. L. Dass, arrived in port yesterday from the company's camp at Atli Inlet, Queen Charlotte Islands, with Jack Hanson, superintendent of the camp, which has been closed down for a time, and other members of the crew on board. Some proceeded to Vancouver on the Catala yesterday afternoon while others are continuing through to Vancouver aboard the Norah Jane. Some hunting will be done on the way down the coast.

The only halibut boat in yesterday was the Embia which called last night and went through to New Westminster with 10,000 pounds of halibut and 30,000 pounds of black cod for Edmunds & Walker.

After being out a week in Portland Canal, Captain D. Ritchie arrived home early this week on the Onome with 3,000 pounds of mud shark livers. They are sold here for medicinal purposes.

RECIPIENTS OF RELIEF

Ninety-Two Families and Eighty-Six Single Men Being Taken Care of by City Now

The municipal relief list in Prince Rupert this city is slightly lower than last. There were 92 families with 334 dependents on relief here during October, according to figures obtained this morning at the office of the city commissioner, the total outlay for municipal relief having been $3379 of which the city pays forty percent and the government the balance. Eighty-six single men and four single Orientals were on city relief.

Attendance Figures For Local Schools

Total of 485 Enrolled at Booth Memorial School and 314 At Borden Street

Enrolment at Booth Memorial School for the month of October totalled 485 including 277 boys and 208 girls, according to report of the principal presented to City Commissioner W. J. Alder. The percentage attendance for the school was 94.37. School savings for the month totalled $32.30. At Borden Street School the total enrolment was 314 consisting of 154 boys and 160 girls, the school percentage being 95.4. Savings at this school totalled $29.

Father Champagne of Terrace and Mrs. Dupuis of Haysport arrived in the city this afternoon on the work train.

THIS BILL ATTRACTIVE

Two Feature Pictures and Baer-Louis Fight Pictures at Capitol This Mid-Week

Three feature attractions are being presented on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here this mid-week. One is an hilarious comedy starring W. C. Fields entitled "Man on the Flying Trapeze." Another is a thrilling college murder play, "College Scandal," in which a number of younger stars appear. Third on the list are the Max Baer-Joe Louis heavyweight fight pictures which were taken at the ringside at Yankee Stadium and show clearly how the big Californian met his Waterloo at the hands of the Detroit negro.

In the role of a hen-pecked husband at home and a down-trodden clerk at the office, W. C. Fields, in "Man on the Flying Trapeze," bubbles over with his customary rags, his habitual mirth-provoking pantomime and his pathetic, helpless blunderings. One hilarious scene comes after another from beginning to end of the picture. Kathleen Howard has the role of Fields' nagging wife while Mary Brian is his pretty daughter.

A thrilling, engrossing mystery is presented in "College Scandal," a thrilling climax being the denouement as a dangerous murderer is closed in upon. Heading the cast is handsome Kent Taylor while others taking part are Arline Judge, Wendy Barrie, Eddie Nugent and William Frawley.
