LEGION XMAS TREE ENJOYED

Upwards of 200 Children Greet Santa at Canadian Legion Rooms

The annual Canadian Legion Christmas Tree was held last Saturday at the clubrooms when upwards of two hundred children were in attendance to welcome Santa Claus. A fine Christmas Tree, illuminated with varied-colored lights and laden with presents for the children, gave the room the real Christmas atmosphere. Ice cream and bags of candy satisfied the eager youngsters until Santa himself arrived.

The convenor of the committee was Mrs. Hugh Killin assisted by Miss Edith Gandy, Mrs. Hugh Smith, Mrs. William Rothwell and Mrs. J. A. Teng with Mrs. Jack Preece in general charge. The men's committee assisting included Ernest Anderson, S. A. Bird, C. L. Barker, George Dawes and Jack Dougherty. Mrs. J. S. Black provided musical numbers as well as playing for the singing of "O Canada" at the opening and the National Anthem at the end.

Constable C. H. Bennett, who is identified with the radio service of the provincial police, arrived in the city on the Catala last night for duty here. He is joining the P. M. L. 8 as operator in place of Constable M. R. Dafoe who is being transferred to Ocean Falls.

At Christmas Time

The joy that flows at Christmas is one of the sweet things of life. Friends and relatives gather from far and near. It's the great festival of the year. Feasting crowns the board and, with its richness and fine natural flavor, Pacific Milk always comes in to play a part. Its large part, for more of it is used now—much more—than at any other season.
