The Astors, Mother and Son, in Parliament

Among the early arrivals in London for the opening session of the newly-elected British Parliament were Lady Nancy Astor, now a veteran "commoner," and her son and newly-elected member, Hon. William Waldorf Astor, both shown above.

TWO FILMS INTEREST

"Little America" and "Paris In Spring" on Capitol Theatre Screen

"Little America," an authentic, breath-taking visual record of the latest South Polar expedition of Admiral Richard E. Byrd, and "Paris in Spring," a gay and romantic musical picture, comprise an interesting double bill being presented at the Capitol Theatre at the first of this week.

An absorbing drama has been woven into "Little America" which includes dangerous thrill-packed events that befel the courageous troupe of men who struggled to conquer the polar regions of Antarctica. There are numerous thrilling episodes in blinding blizzards, mountain ascents, airplane flights, etc. It is grand entertainment replete with action, comedy and romance attending the adventures of the explorers and scientists at the bottom of the world.

Lovely Mary Ellis and debonair Tulio Carminati are heroine and hero of "Paris in Spring." In connection with the comedy romance are presented a quartette of brand new and popular tunes. The story revolves about Carminati's hectic love for Miss Ellis. Jessie Ralph and Lynne Overman lead the supporting cast.

FORGOTTEN VILLAGE

LONDON, Dec. 23: (CP)—Frittenden, Kent, 700 population, is indignant because it has been described as "the forgotten village," having no cinema and no railway, but the residents declare they are satisfied with these conditions.

Vancouver is nearing completion and will soon be ready for occupation Emil Kaufman is the contractor and G. L. Proctor, architect. M. Matheson is local manager for the company.

Capt. Dave Ritchie Has New Boat—Rough Weather on Gulf of Alaska—Northholm in Port.

Capt. Dave Ritchie, well known Prince Rupert halibut boat operator, returned home on Saturday afternoon with the combination seineboat and halibutter Myrtle K. which he had purchased in Vancouver to replace the Unome which he has operated for years. Capt. Ritchie was accompanied by his son, Alf, and the run up the coast from Vancouver to Prince Rupert occupied three days. The Myrtle K. is a 47-foot boat equipped with a 70 h.p. Norwegian semi-diesel engine. It was purchased from Carek Reksdal of Vancouver. The vessel, built some four or five years ago, has never before been in northern waters.

Exceptionally stormy weather at the week-end on the Gulf of Alaska has caused the larger vessels of the Pacific Coast halibut fleet to scurry into port for shelter, thus shortening up the final catches of the season. The storm was one of the most severe on record, according to reports received at Prince Rupert.

Frank Waterhouse freighter Northholm, Capt. A. W. Ogden, arrived in port yesterday afternoon from Vancouver and, after discharging local cargo, left for Surf Point mine, Porcher Island, to unload coal and take on concentrates for the south.

Delayed by foggy weather which has been general along the coast, Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findlay, did not arrive from the south until 9:40 last night. She sailed a couple of hours later for Stewart, Anyox and other northern points whence she is due back here Tuesday morning, sailing at 1:30 in the afternoon for the south. The Catala brought a large Christmas mail from the south. The vessel arrived at Stewart at 12:15 noon today.

Armour Salvage Co.'s service boat Daly returned to port at 11 o'clock last night from a week-end hunting trip to Kwinimass, the party on board consisting of Capt. W. P. Armour, F. A. MacCallum, W. O Fulton and two sons The bag consisted of a couple of geese and a goodly number of ducks.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

December 23, 1910

At a largely attended and lively meeting in the Empress Theatre last night, Mayor Fred Stork and members of the city council gave an account of their stewardship during the past year Criticisms levelled at the administration by S. M. Newton were refuted by the members of the retiring council and a good deal of time was spent answering so-called slanders and misrepresentations. Ald. G. R. Naden denied that, with the exception of himself, Ald V. W. Smith and Ald. A. A. McIntyre the council was a "bunch of grafters" Other speakers were Ald. McIntyre, Ald Pattullo, Ald. Lynch, Ald. Smith and Ald. Mobley. With rousing cheers for King George and the city council, the meeting broke up after 11 p.m.
