Looks Like Cinch For Jock McEvoy To Capture Title

NEW YORK, Dec. 23:—Following his sensational one round knockout victory over Babe Risko, middleweight champion of the world, in a non-title bout Friday night, boxing experts agree that it will be a cinch for Jock McEvoy, Britain's middleweight champion, to lift the title as soon as he gets a chance at it which may be early in the New Year. McEvoy knocked Risko down six times before finishing him and it all took only two minutes and forty-eight seconds.

SPORT CHAT

There will be two play-off basketball games tonight at the Moose Hall. The Junior Moose and the Boy Scouts tangle in the first game to decide the winners of the first half in the junior circuit. Both teams are evenly matched and it should be a good game. Lambie & Stone and Moose battle it out in the second and final game of the evening's card to decide who will be winner of the Senior League first half and the right to enter the play-offs with the second half winners for the city championship. These two teams put up one of the toughest fights seen here in a long time a while back and undoubtedly this game will be of the same calibre.
